Mercy for you,

though you have not met Jesus

The Gospel passage about Jesus appearing to the disciples, first without and then with Thomas, has been of much interest to many people. So much so that now we have a general expression derived from it, “doubting Tom”. But to understand this Gospel passage, we need to read it in its context.

In the last verses of chapter 20, John the evangelist gives the reason why he has written about this appearance of Jesus. John says, “These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah (Christ), the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.” (Jn 20:31). John wrote for a community in Asia Minor (present day Turkey) and it was written towards the end of the first century AD, about 60 years after Jesus’ death and resurrection. These people to whom John wrote the Gospel, had not met Jesus personally. Like us, they had to rely on the testimonies of the apostles or their disciples to believe in Jesus. Therefore to them John says it does not matter that you have not seen Jesus personally. Because the Risen Christ told Thomas that “blessed are those who believe (that Jesus is Son of God and Christ) although they have not seen (him)”. While the other disciples were terrified of the outside world till resurrected Jesus appeared to them and made them believe in him, Thomas also waited till he met resurrected Jesus to proclaim him as the “Lord and God”; meaning Son of God and Saviour. To them Jesus says, “Blessed are those who believe although they have not seen.” Therefore, John tells his community in Asia Minor (Turkey) that they should believe relying on the Word of God proclaimed to them.

Similarly you too should believe in Jesus as our Saviour and our Lord, based on the Word of God proclaimed to you by the Church and her ministers. You do not need to wait for any apparition of God to enter into the love and mercy of God, our Saviour. Therefore do not be disappointed that while many people in the world claim to have apparitions of some sort or another. Your faith based on Bible and the teaching of the Church will be enough for you to enter into God’s mercy. On this Mercy Sunday, let us rely on the call the fathers of the Church has for us and actively seek the mercy of God.

Hospital Visitation, Urgent

At very short notice, I have been advised that this week’s rostered volunteers for Hospital Visitation are unable to visit Auburn Hospital this weekend or hereafter. Therefore there has not been any visit to the Hospital this weekend. I am interested in hearing from any willing parishioners who could go on the roster once a month to visit the sick in Auburn District Hospital, of which I am the Catholic Chaplain. We require two or three volunteers. It requires a couple of hours on one Saturday of each month. Let the parish office know on 96447787 or email info@stpeter-stjoseph.org.au if you can help.

Living Biblically in a Secular World

Starting on Wednesday 4 May at St Peter Chanel

This is a video program with Archbishop Mark Coleridge of Brisbane Archdiocese. You are welcome to join at 7.30 PM on Wednesday, 4 May, at Jubilee Hall (Parish Hall), Berala. Please enrol by calling the parish office on 9644 7787 or emailing info@stpeter-stjoseph.org.au

This week we welcome into the Catholic faith

Spencer David Russell

May he always know the love of God and feel His guiding hand throughout his life

Adult Baptism

To register for Adult Baptism, please email the parish office or telephone 9644 7787. People who have been baptised in a church other than the Catholic Church also can ask for formal initiation into the Catholic Church. If they have received a valid baptism in that church, they do not need another baptism. But there are special rituals of formal welcome into the Catholic Church. Those adults who have been baptised in the Catholic Church, but have not received First Holy Communion, or Confirmation also are welcome to contact parish office.

Parish Choir Practice - Change of Time

Choir practice will now be held regularly each week on a TUESDAY EVENING at 7.30pm at 8 Wallace St Sefton. This revision of practice time is to accommodate changes in family commitments for some of our members.

PSALMIST PRACTICE will take place at 7.00pm (just before our main practice) on the Tuesday evening. We need many new members (especially men) to join us in learning hymns for Confirmation and the other Sacraments, and for the many big Feast days that are coming up e.g. the Ascension, Pentecost, Holy Trinity and Corpus Christi. We look forward to welcoming many new members in 2016.

Thank you for your kindness

I had an Email from Eileen Baptiste, one of our Catechists. Following is what she wrote:
Percy and I would like to thank the people who assisted us on Easter Sunday. We were at 10.00am Mass and unfortunately, just before the Offertory, Percy fainted in Church. The people behind us and in front of us immediately came to our aid, supporting Percy and offering him water when he recovered. Two gentlemen then assisted him out of Church on to the bench outside and after a few minutes one gentleman assisted Percy to the car. We don't know the names of any of the people but would like to sincerely thank them for their help. What a wonderful display of compassion and mercy on Easter Sunday.

Project Compassion

Caritas Australia would like to thank you for supporting Project Compassion. If you still have your Project Compassion box or set of envelopes at home, please return them as soon as possible so all donations may be forwarded on to Caritas. Together, we are working towards the creation of the just and compassionate world that God desires.

More volunteers to polish the pews

A number of people have volunteered to help with preparing the pews (benches) in SPC Church for polishing. These pews need sanding before polishing. There are enough volunteers for Saturday 16 April. But more volunteers required for Saturdays April 23 & 30. If you can volunteer from 10 AM to 12 noon, please write your name in the sheet provided in the foyer of the Church.

New Liturgy and Ministry Rosters

The next Liturgy and Ministry Roster begins on the 8 May. If your availabilities have changed, or you wish to be included in the roster, please contact the parish office.

No Mass at SJW Tuesday

Feasts of the Week

April 4 - Annunciation of the Lord This feast originated in the East during the sixth century and gained universal observance in the West during the eighth century. It is a feast of the Lord, commemorating the announcement to the Virgin Mary of the Word made flesh, Mary's acceptance of God's will, and the conception of Christ nine months before Christmas. Its occurrence close to Easter links the incarnation with the whole mystery of human redemption in Christ.

April 7 - St John Baptist de la Salle Born at Rheims (France) in 1651. Died at Rouen on this day in 1719. Ordained to the presbyterate in 1678 after seminary studies at Saint Sulpice in Paris. Pioneered schools for poor boys and the working classes, the training of teachers, and the care of disturbed children. Despite much internal conflict and external opposition, he formed his companions into the Brothers of the Christian Schools. Remembered for devoting his entire life and resources to education.

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk, that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia..

Responsorial Psalm:

R Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
his love is everlasting.

Let the sons of Israel say:

Let those who fear the Lord say:

‘His love has no end.’ R.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord,

a marvel in our eyes.

This day was made by the Lord;

we rejoice and are glad. R.

O Lord grant success.

Blessed in the name of the Lord is he who comes.

We bless you from the house of the Lord;

the true God is our light. R.
