Be Resolute, But No Revenge

Augustine, one of my friends and neighbour, was ordained a priest for Patna diocese in India. This area is notorious for attacks on missionaries. It happened a few times to my friend Fr Augustine. About 15 years ago, as Fr Augustine was driving home after supplying Mass in one of his station churches, bandits chased him and shot at him. With the grace of God he and his companion were spared of mortal wounds. But they were bleeding with shrapnel wounds. When I heard of this attack, which was one of many he had to endure, I felt sorry for him. Therefore I invited him to Sydney Australia and promised him to organise the Sydney Archbishop to take him. But my friend Fr Augustine declined my offer of comfort in Sydney saying "I have dedicated my life for the mission of Patna, and it is not fair for me to leave my people." His determination in the face of all adversities was amazing.

Reading the Gospel passage, Luke 9:51-62, I see what inspired Fr Augustine to be so resolute. Jesus, after his teaching and ministries in Galilee, started his journey towards Jerusalem to sacrifice his life as per God's plan for him. On the way he had to pass through Samaria. The people in Samaria did not care for Jesus message and would not receive him. But no objection or rejection could stop Jesus from his mission. He resolutely went ahead. But the disciples wanted to punish the Samaritan village for their lack of faith. But faith is not something to be imposed on. It is a gift from God and it has to be freely accepted and demonstrated. That is the message Jesus had for his disciples. That is why Jesus rebuked his disciples and went off to another village.

Following Jesus into the Kingdom of God is not very easy. Yet Jesus demands total dedication and determination from his disciples. "Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the Kingdom of God." (Lk9:62) It should be like Elisha when he received the mantle of the prophet Elijah and commissioning to continue Elijah's prophetic mission. (1Kings 19:16-21). Elisha renounced all his wealth and property and joyfully and resolutely took up the prophetic mission. Such determination and dedication is demanded of us too.

The nature of obstacles and rejection of Christ teachings differs in various times. Now we are faced with a situation where by the political spectrum and media are promoting redefinition of the institution of marriage. It is challenging the Church's teaching that marriage is the union of a man and woman as husband and wife. There are other challenges too. In the face of all these objections what should be the response of a faithful Christian? We should not falter. We are not to follow popular ideas nor to seek revenge on the people who reject the teachings of Christ. We, as true followers of Christ, should follow him resolutely, acknowledging that faith is God's gift which needs to be accepted by free will.

Holy Father's Appeal

Our parish will be holding a special appeal next weekend (2/3 July) for the Holy Father. The Holy Father's Appeal supports Pope Francis' charitable works around the world and is an important source of funding that allows the Church to extend its help to where it's most desperately needed. Your support with this appeal would be greatly appreciated.

This week we welcome into the Catholic faith

28 June St Irenaeus Born probably at Smyrna (Turkey) about 130. Died at Lyons (France) about 200. A pupil of Saint Polycarp (23 February) who became a presbyter and bishop of Lyons, the principal city of Gaul. Intervened in Rome for patience and reconciliation in Church disputes. Among the first theologians of the Western Church, he refuted gnosticism and further developed the theology of the incarnation. Remembered for his fidelity to apostolic tradition and traditionally venerated as a martyr.

29 June St Peter & St Paul Died as martyrs at Rome under Nero, between 64-67. This pre-eminent feast day of the city of Rome has been observed on this date since the mid-third century. It commemorates the martyrdoms of Peter the "chief of the apostles" and Paul the "apostle to the Gentiles". Remembered for their faith, their courage, and their leadership during the difficult days of the birth of the Church.
