Is our Faith Futile?

Hearing about the persecutions of Christians in Syria and other places, one might ask is our faith in Christ futile. There was a similar case about three decades after Jesus' death and resurrection. Emperor Nero of Rome blamed Christians for the disaster of a terrible fire that swept through Rome and started to persecute Christians. Around 80 AD when Luke wrote the Gospel, the Christians might have been wondering what good their faith was in the face of persecution. The Christian community needed encouraging words. Therefore the evangelist reminded them of what Jesus said and did to encourage his disciples who were upset to know that their master was on his way to be crucified.

Jesus took his disciples for a long walk along the Jezreel valley in Galilee. All along he was telling them that the Son of God was going to be handed down to his persecutors who would crucify him. But after his death, he would victoriously resurrect from the dead. But this was a difficult teaching to understand. Therefore Jesus made his close friends climb up about 460 meters to the top of Mt Tabor. There, at prayer, they were given a glimpse of his divine nature. The dazzling white appearance of Jesus was assurance of the light of hope at the end of the tunnel of persecution and suffering.

The transfigured appearance of Moses and Elijah, the two most revered prophets of the Jews, indicated the glory they had achieved. But they too had to go through suffering as part of their partaking in God's plan. Moses had to wander through the harsh desert of Sinai. Elijah had to endure harsh famine which gripped his people for many years. Hardship, suffering, and persecutions are all part of God's plan. It may be hard to make sense of the sufferings while you are enduring them. But with faith, you get to wait till the end and God will reveal the meaning of it to you. Jesus told his disciples not to tell anyone about the experience of transfiguration until they had witnessed the resurrected Christ. Because the suffering the Son of God had to endure was a scandal to everyone until they saw the resurrected Christ.

There are a lot of people in our time too scandalised at various downfalls of church leaders, persecutions of Christians, and personal sufferings due to illness or ill treatment by immediate family. In all these circumstances we need to take courage and soldier on with hope that the glory of God is awaiting us. Our faith and experience of the suffering of Christ is not futile. Our own share in the suffering of Christ is not futile. Lent is a time to build up strength and to stand up to all kinds of trials. Spend some time each day in Bible meditation and enter into the mercy of God being with us. It will encourage and prepare you for the hard road of Christian life ahead.

Stations of the Cross

Stations of the Cross are held at St Peter Chanel
Church on each Friday in Lent at 7.00 PM

While on earth, Jesus healed all who came to Him.

Through the Power of the Cross...

He still does.

"He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree,
that we might die to sin and live to righteousness.
By his wounds you have been healed."

SPC Roof Repair

The repair of the roof of St Peter Chanel Church is now complete. For the last few weeks you must have seen the scaffolding around the church and hearing the hammering noises. Now it is over. The good news is that the Catholic Church Insurance has paid for it. It took nearly a year of planning; but at the end it is rewarding. Hopefully we will not have to worry any more about a leaking roof. The painters will be back after Easter to complete the painting of the ceiling and the interior of the Church. Many thanks to Charlie Scully who has been managing the project for the parish.

A Family for Baptism

Chris Lucas and his wife Ok Sook (Sue) Shin and their two children, Chloe and Teo, have been preparing for initiation into the Catholic Church. After year long studies and participation in parish liturgies, they are now enrolled for Baptism, Communion and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil Mass. The formal enrolment was done last Sunday at St Mary's Cathedral, Sydney. There were hundreds of other catechumens and candidates with their sponsors from other parishes of the Archdiocese at the ceremony. It was a wonderful experience to see the cathedral nearly full with people involved with the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. In the absence of our Archbishop due to his illness, Bishop Terry Brady presided over the Rite of Election. Now that Chris and Sue are formally enrolled, they will have the ritual 'Scrutinies' the following Sundays at St Peter Chanel Church. At the Easter Vigil they will be solemnly baptised and fully initiated into the Church. After the Easter Vigil parishioners will be invited to the Hall to join a light supper to celebrate their initiation with them.

Over the last few weeks I have been getting a number of other inquiries, especially from young people regarding baptism and initiation into the Church. To assist them and others in Catholic Inquiry, I would like to have some more volunteers with some theological training. Let me know if you wish to volunteer.

Josie Pangilinan - Catechist Auburn West & Berala Public Schools

I had many hang-ups before I actually did become a Catechist. Classroom management is where I struggle most. One time, I thought it better to send two kids out of the classroom during a lesson. I felt so bad about it, wanting to quit. My son, a teacher himself, opened my eyes as to my mission – to be the face of Jesus – welcoming and loving even their naughtiness. When they saw me relax and excited with the lessons on hand, my students started to do the same. I feel so blessed to be part of their spiritual journey.

I may not be in Sudan like Sister Dorothy, but in my scripture classes in the past few yearsmy faith is most active..... Josie Pangilinan a gift received and a gift given.

A catechist is right there,
at the centre of this exchange of gifts”

Funeral Notice

Philomena Eggins, who was a parishioner at Berala for many years before moving to Newcastle, passed away on 15 February aged 94. Philomena was a very active member of our Church community, regularly playing the organ at Mass. Her late husband, John, was also very involved in parish life. Her funeral will be held at St Peter Chanel Church at 11.00am on Tuesday 23 February. May she be granted eternal rest.

Communion

Parents are invited to enrol their children for First Holy Communion on 27/28 February. If your child is in Year 4 or older they are eligible to enrol. Please arrive at SJW or SPC Church half an hour before the start of the Mass. The Sacramental team will collect $15 as registration fee and provide the families with forms to fill in. The children are to present these forms during the Mass to the priest. Parents are then invited to a meeting at 7 PM on Tuesday 1 March (not May as previously advised) at SPC Church. Details of the program will be explained at this meeting and resource materials will be distributed to the parents. Using the material the parents will be able to explain Holy Eucharist to the children and entuse them to participate in Sunday Liturgies. The children and their parents are to meet for one hour catechetical sessions on each Sundays in June after 10 AM Mass in the Jubilee Hall. Alternatively the parents can prepare the children at home. Fr Thomas would like to meet with each family individually, before mid August, to check the preparedness of the child before the reception of the Sacrament. Thursday 18 August is the retreat day for the children at St Peter Chanel Primary School. First Holy Communion will be celebrated at SJW at 8 AM on Sunday 21 August and at SPC on Saturday 27 August at 5pm or at 10am on Sunday 28 August.

Reconciliation

The First Reconciliation Program will start this year with enrolment at all Masses on the first weekend of September. A parents meeting will be held on the following Tuesday evening and the catechetical classes will be held in the Jubilee hall four consecutive Sundays starting on 16 October. The First Reconciliation will be celebrated on 15 and 16 November.

Any further inquiry can be directed Marisa in the parish Office or Maureen Hynes, Sr Karen Nguyen, Josie Pangilinan, or Fr Thomas.

Living Mercy - Sharing the Music of the Heart

Two Sisters of Mercy, Sr Helen and Sr Valda, would love to hear what touches your heart, at his time, about environmental, earth and human needs. As Pope Francis puts it, "Where do you hear the Cry of the Earth and the Cry of the Poor?" We are hoping that together we can increase our understanding and compassion and come up with an appropriate response to these cries—one that is both merciful and practical. We believe that together we can make a difference.

"The heartbeat of God, Jesus and the Church, at its best, is tenderness and mercy." - Francis

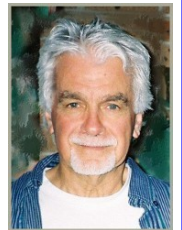

The first meeting will be Wednesday, March 16, 2016 at 7.30pm in the jubilee Hall . Light supper-pizza provided.

Feast of the Week.

2 February - The Chair of St Peter The chair (cathedra) of a bishop is a pre-eminent sign of his teaching authority and pastoral oversight of a local Church. This feast, observed in Rome since the fourth century, celebrates Peter, first among the apostles, as founder of the See of Rome and the focus of unity in the communion of one faith.

Project Compassion: Hum Noy's story - Laos

Duangmala wished for a bright future for her eight-year-old son, Hum Noy, who has Down Syndrome. However, she feared he would remain isolated and never reach his full potential due to a lack of support services for children living with Intellectual disabilities in Laos.

Thankfully, everything changed when Duangmala and Hum Noy were introduced to the Intellectual Disabilities Unit, which was set up by the Lao Disabled People's Association with the support of Caritas Australia. This specialised school provides learning support and nurturing care to 50 children with intellectual disabilities in the Laos capital, Vientiane.

Since starting school, Hum Noy's behaviour and abilities have changed remarkably. He is no longer isolated, lonely or frustrated, and his communication skills have advanced quickly. "Hum Noy is learning how to follow instructions and say the names of his teachers and friends," says Duangmala proudly. "He likes to draw, play instruments, and when they do aerobics he joins in!"

The program has also opened new opportunities for Duangmala, who received training to become a teacher at Hum Noy's school. Now, she is hopeful that her son and his classmates can lead more prosperous, fulfilling lives. "It's important to use our knowledge to help our children grow and develop," she says. "We are lucky to have this program."

Project Compassion envelopes and boxes are available in the Church foyer. Your generous donations are greatly appreciated
