

ST PETER CHANEL & ST JOSEPH BERALA

Third Sunday of Advent Year A

11 December 2016

First Reading Is 35:1-6, 10

A reading from the prophet Isaiah
God himself will come and save us.

Let the wilderness and the dry-lands exult,
let the wasteland rejoice and bloom,
let it bring forth flowers like the jonquil,
let it rejoice and sing for joy.

The glory of Lebanon is bestowed on it,
the splendour of Carmel and Sharon;
they shall see the glory of the Lord,
the splendour of our God.

Strengthen all weary hands,
steady all trembling knees
and say to all faint hearts,
'Courage! Do not be afraid.

'Look, your God is coming,
vengeance is coming,
the retribution of God;
he is coming to save you.'

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
the ears of the deaf unsealed,
then the lame shall leap like a deer
and the tongues of the dumb sing for joy,
for those the Lord has ransomed shall return.

They will come to Zion shouting for joy,
everlasting joy on their faces;
joy and gladness will go with them
and sorrow and lament be ended.

Second Reading Jas 5:7-10

A reading from the letter of St James

You also must be patient; do not lose heart, the Lord's coming will be soon.

Be patient, brothers, until the Lord's coming. Think of a farmer: how patiently he waits for the precious fruit of the ground until it has had the autumn rains and the spring rains! You too have to be patient; do not lose heart, because the Lord's coming will be soon. Do not make complaints against one another, brothers, so as not to be brought to judgement yourselves; the Judge is already to be seen waiting at the gates. For your example, brothers, in submitting with patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

Gospel Mt 11:2-11

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Are you the one who is to come, or must we wait for someone else?

John in his prison had heard what Christ was doing and he sent his disciples to ask him, 'Are you the one who is to come, or have we got to wait for someone else?' Jesus answered, 'Go back and tell John what you hear and see; the blind see again, and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised to life and the Good News is proclaimed to the poor; and happy is the man who does not lose faith in me.'

As the messengers were leaving, Jesus began to talk to the people about John: 'What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the breeze? No? Then what did you go out to see? A man wearing fine clothes? Oh no, those who wear fine clothes are to be found in palaces. Then what did you go out for? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet: he is the one of whom scripture says: Look, I am going to send my messenger before you; he will prepare your way before you. I tell you solemnly, of all the children born of women, a greater than John the Baptist has never been seen; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he is.'

Just for laughs!

At Sunday school, the younger children were drawing pictures illustrating Biblical stories. The teacher walked by and noticed one little boy was drawing an airplane! "Oh, what Bible story are you drawing?" she asked. "This is the Flight into Egypt," the little boy answered. "See, here is Mary, Joseph and baby Jesus. And this," he said, pointing to the front of the plane, "is Pontius. He's the Pilot."

Is he the Christ, or do we have to wait for someone else?

“John in his prison had heard what Jesus was doing and he sent his disciples to ask him, ‘Are you the one who is to come, or have we got to wait for someone else?’” (Mat 11:2-3)

I can relate to the confusion and doubt of John the Baptist in prison. Like John, I was preparing the people of Palar Parish in India for Christ. I was their first Parish Priest. Therefore it was my duty to organise the parish. In my attempt to build up the Body of Christ in Palar, after much thought and prayer, announced a First Friday devotion. To my disappointment, not a single parishioner turned up for the prayers. Then I was feeling like John; taken away from my ministry and imprisoned. Just as John's preaching and work seemed futile. Such were my feeling too. I was tempted to substitute Bible prayers and Sacraments with Social action and Psychology for the benefit of the people of Palar. I had a kind of doubt whether Christ is the real saviour Palar was waiting for. But I did not send disciples like John to Jesus to ask him whether Christ is the saviour Palar is waiting for, or should we look someone else. Palar really needed salvation from problems like alcoholic addiction, illicit activities, violence, aimless life, poverty etc. It was a group of broken people who needed a saviour.

John sent disciples to ask Jesus the question, but I asked him directly. The way I did it was like this. Each morning before Mass I sat in meditation focussing on Jesus until he gave me an answer. I did not get any apparitions. But He came to me in flesh and bone in the form of other people. Out of the blue one of the parishioners came to me requesting a Bible Prayer be conducted at their house. I agreed to do so as long as they invited some more of their acquaintances, like neighbours. From the first one, there were more requests for similar prayer services and it became a chain reaction of numerous prayer sessions. Within 2 years miracles happened in this place. A place which was full of ganga (weed) cultivation and moon shine business turned away from their illicit practices. Looking back at those experiences, I would say, Our Lord, when I sought his answer through my meditation prayers, was telling me, ‘what do you hear and see? The blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are made clean’ (ref Mt 11:4:5). Yes I could see the people of God in Palar seeing things in life with eyes of Christ, those who could not stand on their own legs are now able to get up and go forward in their lives, and they have regained their dignity like a healed leper of Jesus' time. I am fully convinced that Jesus Christ is the saviour and he was present to Palar through Church for which I was the priest and prophet.

Here in our parish I am not alone trying to listen to Jesus. I am pleased that there are a number of people professing Jesus Christ is the Saviour who can open the eyes of the blind, make the lame walk, and restore dignity to those who are marginalised. Let us be together in our listening to Christ and telling the world that our God is working among the humanity as its saviour.

Christmas Giving Trees

At SJW Church: Tags are on the tree which can be taken and attached to presents for the needy for Christmas. Please return the presents soon so that they can be distributed before Christmas. Your participation is appreciated.

At SPC Church: The Tree has been erected in the entrance of the church and all are invited to leave a gift. Please label wrapped gifts with who they may be most appropriate for (i.e. child, man). Your generosity will help bring a smile to those less fortunate.

Introduction to Meditation

Meditation is an art of praying used by many contemplative spiritual leaders in the history of the Church. Fr Thomas will be giving an introduction to Meditation. This talk will refer to Christian Contemplative schools of Hesychasm, Desert Fathers, Ignatian Spirituality, and Eastern contemplative schools of Vipasana and Pathangali Yoga.

Venue: Jubilee Hall Date: Wednesday, 14 December Time: 7 PM – 8.30 PM Cost: Free
To enrol please contact the parish office.

Foreign Coins

This photo shows the number of coins from other countries that have been placed on the collection plates over a period of time. As there is no process in place that would enable us to swap these coins for Australian currency, the coins are virtually worthless. Your assistance is sought in ensuring only Australian coins are placed on the collection plates.

In addition to the abovementioned coins, we also have a number on NZ $2 and $1 coins. If you are planning to visit New Zealand any time soon, we are prepared to sell these coins to you at a favourable exchange rate. Contact John Le Mottee, 9644 8859, for details.

Happy Birthday Fr Mark!

To celebrate Fr Mark Spora's birthday and the anniversary of the Legion of Mary, there will be a special morning tea after the 8.00am Mass at St Joseph the Worker Church this Sunday. Please join us for birthday cake and light refreshments.

Enrolment in Sydney Catholic Systemic Secondary Schools

From 2017, all Sydney Catholic Secondary Systemic schools will be enrolling students for year 7 two years before their intended start date.

This means that, for students in year 5 in 2017, enrolment applications, interviews and offers of place will be conducted at Sydney Catholic Secondary schools over the course of 2017.

The earlier enrolment timing will give parents greater assurance of securing a place for their child so that they can follow a continuous Catholic education pathway from Kindergarten to Year 12.

For more information, please contact the principal at your child's Sydney Catholic School.

From the REC at St Joseph the Worker Primary School

As we come to the end of 2016, we reflect on the Jubilee Year of Mercy as a time of forgiveness, mercy and compassion. Pope Francis called us to conversion in our own lives so that we could bring the face of God's mercy to the world by doing both Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy.

These Corporal Works of Mercy are based on the Scripture passage:

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me." (Mt 25:34,36).

This year the staff at St Joseph the Worker have been involved in these works of mercy. We made hamper donations to the Sisters of Charity Outreach Centre, assisting a local refuge, as well as the elderly associated with the Centre. Last week I dropped off two Christmas hampers to the Outreach Centre at St Vincent's Hospital. Here's a photo of Lizzie (one of the workers at the Centre) with one of the hampers. Our school community also generously donated Christmas hampers to the St Vincent de Paul Society.

This week we also celebrated Christmas with our Christmas Carols Celebration. It was such a joyful occasion with the children singing both modern and traditional carols with great enthusiasm! They also enacted the Nativity story, reminding us that Christmas is a time when we recall how God came to be with us and show us how life should be lived.

December 1 2016

Dear Father Thomas

On behalf of the Our Lady of the Rosary Catholic School Community, Fairfield, may I thank you, the Parish Pastoral Council and your parishioners for the very generous donations of food and drink items you collected to make up Christmas food hampers for the refugee families in our school community.

We have been overwhelmed by your kindness, thoughtfulness and generosity. Your donations will go such a long way in helping these families new to Australia to have a happy Christmas. I am sure the families, as well as our school, will remember you and your generosity in their Christmas prayers.

This week we enrolled our fourteenth refugee student from Iraq. The children who have joined this school over the last two terms have all arrived in Australia from Iraq after journeying through Lebanon or Jordan on the way. The children and their families have endured much strife and heartache. Fortunately, the students are now very settled and happy in our school community where they find a safe, secure, caring Christian environment.

I am very grateful to Phil Townsend for his initiative in bringing the refugee situation in Fairfield to your attention and I am similarly grateful to Jenny Michael for her conversations with me about this idea and also transporting the donated items to the school.

Over the next week I shall ensure the food hampers are delivered to our refugee families and other needy families in the school community. They will be very surprised but most thankful, grateful and appreciative of your kindness.

May God bless the good work that is happening in the Berala Parish where you are certainly building the Kingdom of God.

Advent and Christmas blessings.

Yours sincerely

Brother Nicholas Harsas, fsp

Feasts of the Week

13 December - St Lucy Died at Syracuse in Sicily, probably in the persecution of the emperor Diocletian in 304. Widely venerated from the earliest times, her memorial has long been kept on this day. Probably because her name is suggestive of light, her intercession has been sought for eyesight problems. Named in Eucharistic Prayer I (The Roman Canon) and remembered as a youth, radiant with Christian faith and courage.

14 December - St John of the Cross Born in 1542 at Fontiveros (Spain). Died on this day in Ubeda. A Carmelite priest who joined Saint Teresa of Jesus (15 October) in the work of Carmelite reform and, despite opposition and imprisonment, organised the disalced Carmelites. Remembered for his mystical writings, which combine theology and poetry to describe the spiritual journey through darkness to union with God.

Antiphons & Readings

Entrance Antiphon:

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice.
Indeed, the Lord is near.

Responsorial Psalm:

(R.) Lord, come and save us .

1. It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever,
who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free. (R.)

2. It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind,
who raises up those who are bowed down,
the Lord, who protects the stranger
and upholds the widow and orphan. (R.)

3. It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age. (R.)

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!
The Spirit of the Lord is upon me;
he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.
Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon:

Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear.
Behold, our God will come, and he will save us.
