

ST PETER CHANEL & ST JOSEPH BERALA

The Nativity of the Lord

25 December 2016

The readings below are from Midnight Mass of the Nativity of Our Lord

First Reading Is 9:1-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

A son is given to us.

The people that walked in darkness has seen a great light;
on those who live in a land of deep shadow
a light has shone.
You have made their gladness greater,
you have made their joy increase;
they rejoice in your presence as men rejoice at harvest time, as men are happy when they are dividing the spoils.
For the yoke that was weighing on him,
the bar across his shoulders,
the rod of his oppressor,
these you break as on the day of Midian.

For all the footgear of battle,
every cloak rolled in blood,
is burnt
and consumed by fire.
For there is a child born for us, a son given to us
and dominion is laid on his shoulders;
and this is the name they give him:
Wonder-Counsellor, Mighty-God,
Eternal-Father, Prince-of-Peace.
Wide is his dominion
in a peace that has no end, for the throne of David and for his royal power, which he establishes and makes secure in justice and integrity.
From this time onwards and for ever,
the jealous love of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Second Reading Ti 2:11-14

A reading from the letter of St Paul to Titus

God's grace has been revealed to all people.

God's grace has been revealed, and it has made salvation possible for the whole human race and taught us that what we have to do is to give up everything that does not lead to God, and all our worldly ambitions; we must be self-restrained and live good and religious lives here in this present world, while we are waiting in hope for the blessing which will come with the Appearing of the glory of our great God and saviour Christ Jesus. He sacrificed himself for us in order to set us free from all wickedness and to purify a people so that it could be his very own and would have no ambition except to do good.

Gospel Lk 2:1-14

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Today a saviour has been born for you.

Caesar Augustus issued a decree for a census of the whole world to be taken. This census – the first – took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria, and everyone went to his own town to be registered. So Joseph set out from the town of Nazareth in Galilee and travelled up to Judaea, to the town of David called Bethlehem, since he was of David's House and line, in order to be registered together with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. While they were there the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to a son, her first-born. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger because there was no room for them at the inn. In the countryside close by there were shepherds who lived in the fields and took it in turns to watch their flocks during the night. The angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone round them. They were terrified, but the angel said, 'Do not be afraid. Listen, I bring you news of great joy, a joy to be shared by the whole people. Today in the town of David a saviour has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. And here is a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.' And suddenly with the angel there was a great throng of the heavenly host, praising God and singing: 'Glory to God in the highest heaven and peace to men who enjoy his favour.'

Imagine, just before Christmas, an honest politician, a generous lawyer and Santa Claus were riding in the elevator of a very posh hotel. Just before the doors opened they all noticed a $20 bill lying on the floor.

Which one picked it up?

Santa of course, because the other two don't exist!

Christmas lunch thank you

This is the 4th year our parish has been holding a Christmas Day luncheon. This event brings joy to many who attend and are involved and truly captures the spirit of the season. Many thanks to Arthur Doumit and team and all those who helped plan, advertise and set up and decorate the hall. We also thank all those who generously donated food and drinks for this event. The Christmas luncheon relies on many volunteers for whom we are extremely grateful.

Happy Christmas!

Emmanuel, Our God Is With Us

Generosity is the mark of Christmas. The generous donations of so many parishioners and other volunteers, of their time as well as various items makes our annual Christmas Luncheon possible. Many of our parishioners have been volunteers in war torn South Sudan, Myanmar and such other demanding places doing works of charity. These volunteers are not seeking any approval from others other than the grace of God. Though not all of these charities are done during the Christmas season, they all reflect the Christmas Spirit; because God has been generous with us that he gave his only son to live with us. No amount of gifts can match with God's self-giving for us. Therefore I rejoice as much as you do that our God is with us – Emmanuel.

The joy is always contagious. The song of joy the angels sang to the shepherds in and around Bethlehem could not be contained to the anonymity of the valley of whispers – the valley of shepherds. The good news of Our God coming down to live with human beings reached the wise men from the East and eventually the whole world. Now the whole world celebrates the birth of Jesus, Christmas. Now we celebrate the birth of God in our own lives. In our hopes, dreams as well as our downs and disasters we find strength and reason to celebrate spreading joy to the world because we know our God is with us. I wish you all the peace of and joy of Our God being with us, Emmanuel.

Marisa Moving on

Marisa has been our parish secretary since June 2014. She has been an efficient Secretary. Now she has been appointed Family Educator at All Hallows Five Dock, starting in January. Therefore she will be leaving Berala in January. In addition to being Parish Secretary, she has been coordinating the Sacramental team and making sure there has been a smooth transition of the Program from School based to Parish based. The parish and I particularly will miss her. I wish her best wishes with her new appointment.

Lea Baldoria will take over the position of Secretary in January. Lea comes with great experience and expertise in secretarial positions. The parish welcomes her and wishes her all the best.

Happy Birthday Lina!

Lina Jarczewski has been part of the St Peter Chanel and St Joseph parish family since 1960. She has been an active member in various roles including being part of the God's Housekeepers team.

Lina will celebrate her 90th birthday on Thursday 29 December. We congratulate her and wish her an abundance of God's blessings on her special day.

The Catholic Parish of

Parish Office Closed

The Parish Office will be closed from Monday 26th of December and will reopen on Tuesday, 3rd of January.

Parish Carols

The first outdoor carols of Berala Parish was received enthusiastically by the parishioners. It was amazing to see the lawns beside SPC Church full of smiling faces and joyous singing. Our Parish Choir with Maureen as their leader has been practicing for many weeks and it did pay off. The Samoan Choir with musician Paul Fuiava as their leader presented wonderful carol singing. Sound Engineering was done by Robert Weaver, Jenny Michael did the Liturgical Planning and the role of MC. Maria Simeone, Karim Kassis, and Micheline Botham proclaimed the Word of God announcing the Christmas joy. There were a lot of other people helping with setting up the chairs and other arrangements, decorations, and sale of Reflection Books and candles. To all, I wish to say 'thank you for a job very well done.' Let us consider this as a start of a tradition of carols in our parish.

Envelope Contributions

Due to recent NSW State Government legislative changes that take effect from 1 January 2017 it will not be possible to provide tax deductibility on Planned Giving donations made after 31 December 2016. A tax deductible receipt will however be provided at the end of the current financial year for any contributions made for the period 1 July to 31 December 2016.

The Parish Finance Committee will be writing to each parishioner who is currently contributing to the Parish Planned Giving and who is seeking tax deductibility to provide them with further information. Tax deductibility will still be available for contributions to the Charitable Works Fund and Priests Retirement Fund appeals.

Watch Found

A lost watch is found in the church grounds. Contact Fr Thomas to claim it back.

Feasts of the Week

26 December - St Stephen Died in Jerusalem about 35. The feast of Stephen has been celebrated on this day since the fourth century. A Greek-speaking Jew, one of seven appointed by the apostles for special service (diakonia). Died confessing Christ and seeking divine mercy for those who were stoning him. Named in the Roman Canon (Eucharistic Prayer I). Remembered for preaching with wisdom and the Spirit (Acts 6:10), as one "full of grace and power" who "did great wonders and signs among the people" (Acts 6:8).

27 December - St John First-century Galilean fisherman, son of Zebedee, who, with his brother James, left their nets to follow Jesus. With Peter, these "sons of thunder" form an inner group among the twelve. Probably the "disciple whom Jesus loved" of the Fourth Gospel and, according to ancient tradition, the author of this Gospel and also of three letters and the book of Revelation. Remembered for his contemplative reflection on the life and death of Jesus and for his emphasis on Christian love.

28 December - Holy Innocents In an attempt to kill the child Jesus, Herod ordered the massacre of all male children, two years old and under, in and around Bethlehem. The Holy Innocents have been honoured as martyrs for Christ since the fourth century and their feast has been celebrated on this day since the sixth century. In remembering them, the Church laments the suffering and death of children everywhere and honours all who die in innocence.

30 December - The Holy Family of Jesus Mary & Joseph This feast was established as part of the Christmas season in 1921 following promotion of the cult in the nineteenth century; it was linked to the octave of Christmas in 1969. The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, itself subject to the difficulties and social pressures of its time, is offered as a model for Christian family life today

1 January - Mary the Holy Mother of God Venerated as Mother of God from ancient times, the Virgin Mary was acclaimed Theotokos (God-bearer) in 431 by the Council of Ephesus, and commemorated on this day in Rome in the seventh century. Soon eclipsed by other feasts of Mary. Restored to the liturgical calendar in 1931, and to this day in 1969. Celebrates Mary's role in the mystery of the incarnation, enriches the octave of Christmas with a Marian perspective, and provides a solemn beginning to the New Year.

Entrance Antiphon:

Today you will know that the Lord will come, and he will save us,
and in the morning you will see his glory.

Responsorial Psalm:

R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord
'I have made a covenant with my chosen one;
I have sworn to David my servant:
I will establish your dynasty for ever and set up your throne through all ages.' R.
Happy the people who acclaim such a king,
who walk, O Lord, in the light of your face,
who find their joy every day in your name,
who make your justice the source of their bliss. R.

'He will say to me: "You are my father,
my God, the rock who saves me."
I will keep my love for him always;
for him my covenant shall endure.' R.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Tomorrow the wickedness of the earth will be destroyed:
the Saviour of the world will be our king
Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon:

The glory of the Lord will be revealed,
and all flesh will see the salvation of our God

Antiphons & Readings Christmas Midnight Mass

Entrance Antiphon:

The Lord said to me: You are my Son.
It is I who have begotten you this day

Responsorial Psalm:

R Today is born our Saviour, Christ the Lord.
O sing a new song to the Lord,
sing to the Lord all the earth.
O sing to the Lord, bless his name R.
Proclaim his help day by day,
tell among the nations his glory
and his wonders among all the peoples. R.
Let the heavens rejoice and earth be glad,
let the sea and all within it thunder praise,
let the land and all it bears rejoice,

all the trees of the wood shout for joy at the presence of the Lord for he comes, he comes to rule the earth R.

With justice he will rule the world,
he will judge the peoples with his truth. R.

A child is born for us, and a son is given to us;
his sceptre of power rests upon his shoulder,
and his name will be called Messenger of great counsel

Responsorial Psalm:

R All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God .
Sing a new song to the Lord for he has worked wonders.
His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation R.
The Lord has made known his salvation;
has shown his justice to the nations.
He has remembered his truth and love for the house of Israel. R.
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Shout to the Lord all the earth,
ring out your joy R.

Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp,
with the sound of music.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn acclaim the King, the Lord. R.
