

ST PETER CHANEL & ST JOSEPH BERALA

Third Sunday Ordinary Time—Year A

22 January 2017

First Reading Is 8:23 – 9:3

In days past the Lord humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in days to come he will confer glory on the Way of the Sea on the far side of Jordan, province of the nations. The people that walked in darkness has seen a great light; on those who live in a land of deep shadow a light has shone. You have made their gladness greater, you have made their joy increase, they rejoice in your presence as men rejoice at harvest time, as men are happy when they are dividing the spoils. For the yoke that was weighing on him, the bar across his shoulders, the rod of his oppressor, these you break as on the day of Midian.

Second Reading 1 Cor 1:10-13, 17

I appeal to you, brothers, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, to make up the differences between you, and instead of disagreeing among yourselves, to be united again in your belief and practice. From what Chloe's people have been telling me, my dear brothers, it is clear that there are serious differences among you. What I mean are all these slogans that you have, like: 'I am for Paul', 'I am for Apollos', 'I am for Cephas', 'I am for Christ'. Has Christ been parcelled out? Was it Paul that was crucified for you? Were you baptised in the name of Paul? For Christ did not send me to baptise, but to preach the Good News, and not to preach that in the terms of philosophy in which the crucifixion of Christ cannot be expressed.

Gospel Mt 4:12-17

Hearing that John had been arrested Jesus went back to Galilee, and leaving Nazareth he went and settled in Capernaum, a lakeside town on the border of Zebulun and Naphtali. In this way the prophecy of Isaiah was to be fulfilled:

Land of Zebulun! Land of Naphtali! Way of the sea on the far side of Jordan, Galilee of the nations! The people that lived in darkness has seen a great light; on those who dwell in the land and shadow of death a light has dawned.

From that moment Jesus began his preaching with the message, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.'

Historical context

Repent

Throughout the Old Testament, the people of Israel repeated a cycle of behaviour. When their relationship with God was strong, they upheld the covenant and they prospered. They would forget that their prosperity lay in being in right relationship with one another and with God and so they would neglect those relationships. They would turn so far away that some tragedy or oppression would befall them. Out of their despair they would recognise their need for God and they would 'repent' and re-establish their relationship with God. Jesus' call to repent is a call to looking at the relationship with God in a whole new way.

Have you thought? People in darkness

The passage from Isaiah that is quoted in the gospel, speaks of the people who dwell in darkness. The passage is addressed to the Jewish tribes of Zebulun and Naphtali – two of the twelve tribes. These two tribes lived in the northernmost part of Palestine and their lands were surrounded by Gentiles. Any non-Jew was regarded as living in darkness because they did not have the light of 'truth', but these two tribes also dwelt in darkness because they were surrounded by it. Regardless, the passage asserts that all who dwell in darkness (Gentile and Jew alike) will receive a great light.

from the perspective

the first called

What must it have been like for those first four disciples Jesus called? The fact that they were fishing means that they had not been chosen to continue studying the Torah beyond childhood and had not been chosen by a rabbi to be his followers. Even as young men, these four were has-beens and had no hope of a rabbi asking them to be his disciples. Suddenly, Jesus appears and calls them to follow him. A life that had passed them by suddenly opened up before them! Of course they dropped everything and followed.

THE PEOPLE IN DARK WILL SEE A GREAT LIGHT

The place Jesus chose to start his ministry is significant. He moved from Nazareth, a place very close to political power and economic activity to Capernaum, an insignificant place at the time Jesus. This village besides the Sea of Galilee had a different name earlier in the history—Naphthali- and Isaiah refers to it. When Tiglat Pilser of Babylon attacked Israel in 8th Century BC, this was one of the first region to fall to this pagan king. The pagan influence on this area for a long time affected their Jewish religious faith and practice. Therefore to the mainstream Jewish community, the people of Capernaum (Naphthali) were living in darkness. Jesus took up the challenge of commencing his preaching the Kingdom of God in this land of ill reputation, providing light to the people who were in the dark regarding the Word of God and the Kingdom of God. Jesus also chose most of his disciples from this region which was considered as God forsaken. Peter, an unsophisticated fisherman who was chosen to lead the Apostles, lived in the heart of Capernaum (Naphthali). The people, the region, and the time were considered as the least appropriate to launch a major undertaking was chosen by Jesus as the best to launch the mission of the Kingdom of God. This in itself is a great news for us.

If some of the family members are a challenge because they either do not care about religious practices or hate the Church, Jesus would say it is the opportune time for you to make sure, “the people that lived in darkness has seen a great light”. (Ref. Mt 4:16 Isaiah 9:2) If sickness or some other failures in life has challenged your faith, Jesus would say, “on those who live in the land of deep shadow a light has shown.” (Ref. Mt 4:16 Isaiah 9: 2).

The way Jesus commenced his ministry of preaching the Kingdom of God is an encouragement for us at this time of Parish 2020 program and our plans for the renewal programs in the parish. If cultural diversity and difficulties caused by lack English proficiency among many parishioners is challenging us, going by Jesus’ logic, it is the opportune time to commence the renewal program in our parish. If you find the lack of resources and even the parish Priest is hard to understand, then it is an opportune time to commence our renewal program in the parish. Just as Jesus chose the unsophisticated people to be his apostles, we too do not need experts to make up a team to work towards Parish 2020 renewal program. It only requires an openness of heart and mind to the Word of God and willingness to work with your pastor. I am, therefore not waiting for the people with leisure time and expertise to assist me with the ministries and evangelisation programs. I am looking for people who are prepared to challenge themselves, in spite of a busy life style. Open your hearts and minds to the Word of God and respond to the call of the parish to undertake the renewal ministries, so that ‘the people in darkness will see a great light’.
