

ST PETER CHANEL & ST JOSEPH BERALA

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time— Year A 9 July 2017

First Reading Zec 9:9-10

The Lord says this: 'Rejoice heart and soul, daughter of Zion! Shout with gladness, daughter of Jerusalem! See now, your king comes to you; he is victorious, he is triumphant, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. He will banish chariots from Ephraim and horses from Jerusalem; the bow of war will be banished. He will proclaim peace for the nations. His empire shall stretch from sea to sea, from the River to the ends of the earth.'

Second Reading Rom 8:9.11-13

Your interests are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him, and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

Gospel Mt 11:25-30

Jesus exclaimed, 'I bless you, Father, Lord of heaven and of earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to mere children. Yes, Father, for that is what it pleased you to do. Everything has been entrusted to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, just as no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

'Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest. Shoulder my yoke and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Yes, my yoke is easy and my burden light.'

Historical context

Jewish education

Education in Galilee at the time of Jesus was highly valued. From the age of five, all boys and girls studied to memorise in totality the five books of the Torah (the first five books of the Bible). This period of study was called Beth Sefer. From about 10-14 they continued studying and memorising the remaining books of scripture (Beth Talmud). From about 14 or 15, only the very best students would enter Beth Midrash and apply to a rabbi to become his talmid – disciple – and seek to take on that rabbi's yoke.

Living the gospel

Shoulder my yoke

Jesus invites us to shoulder his yoke and learn from him for he is gentle and humble in heart. The yoke he invites us to shoulder is the deceptively simple teaching: love God and love your neighbour. To love God is to consciously make a place in our lives for God. The busy spin that tends to be characteristic of so many people's lives today does not allow room for God; does not allow room for prayer and quiet; does not allow room for compassionate response to others. To love God and love our neighbour we must first make room for them.

Have you thought? Thank God!

Jesus' quite intimate words to the Father in today's passage carry with them an enormous amount of relief and perhaps released frustration. It is almost a cry of 'Thank God!' for his disciples have finally 'got it'. Jesus blesses the Father for revealing the truth to these simple men whom Jesus had chosen to follow him. The men Jesus chose as disciples were not following another rabbi and so had not been the very best students from their village. They had the education of most children but nothing more – otherwise they would have been following someone else!

REMINDER!

There is no DIY Catholicism

Pope Francis is known for his simplicity and straight forward talk. Holy Father said "There are those who believe you can have a personal, direct, immediate relationship with Jesus Christ outside of the communion and the mediation of the Church. These are dangerous and harmful temptations. Our relationship with Christ is personal but not private. It is born of, and enriched by, the communion of the Church. There is no 'DO-IT-YOURSELF' in the Church, there are no free agents."

Jesus says, "I bless you Father, Lord of heaven and of earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to mere children". (Mt 11:25) Therefore if anyone thinks they are clever enough to work out for themselves the true religion, they are bound to fail. The truth of the religion does not depend on the logic of the clever mind. Only Jesus can reveal the truth and he will do it to those who ask him like a child. Jesus as a human being is not available now. But he is physically present to us in the Church. Church is the body of Christ for us, in a mystical way. Therefore it is important to check with the Church for the veracity of the truth about religion. "No one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him" (Mt 11:27).

As part of being clever, we feel obliged to be busy always. There seems to be a thinking that only by being busy one can justify his/her existence. If there is not much to do, we invent ways of being busy because we feel that there is something wrong otherwise. Whilst God does not want you to be lazy, he invites us to take rest so that we can connect with him. Once we allow time and space for God in our life, we will experience that He is gentle and humble of heart. Also we will experience that nothing in life is a burden and everything life throws at you is easy to carry. Therefore if you are overwhelmed by the responsibility and tasks entrusted to you, take time out to connect with God. Personal meditation, bible prayer, retreats, attending Holy Mass are all time with God that can help you.

The knowledge and experience that our saviour and Lord Jesus is always with us to help us, especially in our troubled times, should be a comfort to us. Therefore do not trust 'do it yourself spirituality'. Always seek the Church, the Body of Christ, to help.

Feasts & Memorials of the Week

Tuesday—St Benedict

St Benedict was born at Nursia in c.480, the brother of St Scholastica. Most of what is known of his life comes from St Gregory the Great's writings. He left his studies in Rome to become a hermit in the mountains near Subiaco, and after a while many followers joined him. It is believed that some monks tried to poison him, possibly out of jealousy or due to his strict discipline. He moved to Monte Cassino, where he completed his Rule; a written guide for those living a monastic life, with a strong emphasis on obedience, moderation and community life. Although Benedict never became a priest or ever intended to found a religious order, his Rule became the fundamental monastic code in Europe into the early middle ages.

Saturday—St Bonaventure

St Bonaventure joined the order of Franciscans in 1243, and was soon recognised for his intellectual talents. He was sent to study in Paris where he taught and preached for many years. He was a contemporary of St Thomas Aquinas, with whom he defended the mendicant friars against their opponents. In 1257, Bonaventure was elected as the head of the Franciscans, and has since been considered the greatest friar minor since St Francis of Assisi himself. He wrote important works on theology, philosophy and mysticism, and was declared a doctor of the church in 1588. He was also regarded for his compassionate and gentle nature and for his accessibility to those who sought him.
