

ST PETER CHANEL & ST JOSEPH BERALA

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time — Year A
16 July 2017

First Reading

Is 55:10-11

Thus says the Lord: 'As the rain and the snow come down from the heavens and do not return without watering the earth, making it yield and giving growth to provide seed for the sower and bread for the eating, so the word that goes from my mouth does not return to me empty, without carrying out my will and succeeding in what it was sent to do.'

Second Reading

Rom 8:18-23

I think that what we suffer in this life can never be compared to the glory, as yet unrevealed, which is waiting for us. The whole creation is eagerly waiting for God to reveal his sons. It was not for any fault on the part of creation that it was made unable to attain its purpose, it was made so by God; but creation still retains the hope of being freed, like us, from its slavery to decadence, to enjoy the same freedom and glory as the children of God. From the beginning till now the entire creation, as we know, has been groaning in one great act of giving birth; and not only creation, but all of us who possess the first-fruits of the Spirit, we too groan inwardly as we wait for our bodies to be set free.

Gospel

Mt 13:1-9

Jesus left the house and sat by the lakeside, but such crowds gathered round him that he got into a boat and sat there. The people all stood on the beach, and he told them many things in parables.

He said, 'Imagine a sower going out to sow. As he sowed, some seeds fell on the edge of the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Others fell on patches of rock where they found little soil and sprang up straight away, because there was no depth of earth; but as soon as the sun came up they were scorched and, not having any roots, they withered away. Others fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Others fell on rich soil and produced their crop, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Listen, anyone who has ears!'

HISTORICAL CONTEXT

Matthew's community

The gospel of Matthew is written at a time and particular context in which the community audience were feeling the effects of having been ostracised from the Jewish community. They were confounded by the fact that other Jews could not accept the reality of the Jesus message as they had. This parable, and the accompanying conversation with the disciples in which they are blessed for their understanding, would have been a comfort for the Matthew community. Although they were frustrated, they were being told through this story that not everyone is ready to hear the message that they had heard and accepted.

LIVING THE GOSPEL

Scatter that seed!

The teaching of the parable of the sower is as true for us today as it was in its original context. The word of the kingdom continues to fall on people who are at various stages of readiness to receive it. What Jesus suggests to his disciples – and to us – is that the 'good soil' can't always be predicted. Jesus doesn't tell his disciples to only sow the word in people who are receptive. Rather, he wants them – and us – to scatter the word everywhere and to rejoice when it does find good soil and yields a rich harvest.

SCRIPTURAL CONTEXT

A Parable Chapter

The gospel of Matthew is nothing if not a well-crafted and highly structured piece of writing. Throughout the gospel there are five major 'discourses' or teachings. Chapter 13, which consists entirely of a collection of parables, is the central discourse of the five. It is the pivotal point of the entire gospel. The nature of the parables indicates that the message of Jesus has not been universally accepted and the parables present metaphors about the consequences for those who do and do not accept the message of Jesus about the reign of God.

Do Not Hold Back Exuberance

Coming together as a community to celebrate the Parish Day is something you and I cherish very much. This is the fourth year we are celebrating Parish Day. Like a good family, we have been working on being a good parish where there is mutual respect and acceptance. As a parish we strive to improve our Christian living. The more we invest in the parish life, the more will be our expectation of the return. As a parish we put in much time and money into improving our ministries. In spite of our Catholic Schools, Catholic Mission, Project Compassion, wonderful Liturgical Music and singing, Bible Study programs, and so much on the Social Media and Parish Bulletin, there is a certain amount of frustration that the returns are not up to the expectation.

The early Christians also were wondering 'why not all Jews are prepared to accept the teaching of Jesus about the Kingdom of God. To them our Lord told the parable of the sower. Jesus said, though all seeds are of same quality and sown in the same season, not all of them produce the same kind of harvest. The harvest varies according the fertility and circumstance of the soil in which it had fallen. But rejoice that they all have produced harvest according to their capacity, thirty fold, sixty fold, or hundred fold. Our job is only to sow the seed, and we should do it without demanding hundred fold harvest all the time. Therefore you who are missionaries of the Kingdom and are able to appreciate the Word of God should never be tired of spreading the seeds of the Kingdom of God.

St Peter Chanel, our parish patron, understood this challenge too well. He preached the Good News of the Kingdom of God and Jesus Christ to Futuna Islanders for about 3 years without much apparent gain. But it did not discourage him from spreading the seed of the Kingdom there. His relentless mission work in the pacific continued until he was clubbed to death. But the blood of the proto martyr of the pacific, St Peter Chanel, was not shed in vain. The Lord turned the mission field of Futuna one of the hundred fold harvest Gospel mission.

My dear friends the Gospel words and the example of our patron saint are urging us not to waste any opportunity to spread the Word of God and the Good News of the Kingdom. Therefore let us never be shy of celebrating our faith in public and spreading the good news of the Kingdom of God. Let more and more people witness the joy we find in our faith life. Let us not hold back our exuberance as a parish in the Lord and his Gospel.

Fund Raising for Fr George

Fr George Kallumkal supplied for us Masses and Pastoral Care during my Annual Leave the last two years. He has been telling us of the challenges he has in keeping the roof of his parish school in the face of natural disasters. It needs rebuilding to make it safe. There will be a fundraising dinner and raffle to help him. The Fundraising Dinner will be held on Saturday 7 October 2017. Arthur Doumit, Charlie Scully, Evelyn Safadi, Tony Draybi, Jenny Michael, and Ivica Kovac are coordinating the fundraising activities. The dinner tickets are $150 per head and you can make up table a table of 8 with your friends. One hundred bricks are also being sold at hundred dollars per brick. A certificate of appreciation will be issued to the donors of brick and their names will be inscribed on plaque and displayed permanently at St Xavier's School. There will also be raffle tickets with attractive prizes made available soon. You are welcome to contact one of coordinators or me to discuss how you could also help with this overseas mission as thanksgiving to God for his goodness to us. ~Fr Thomas

The program will be in October and will be held during weeknights. Let me know if you are interested in attending the talks, by contacting the parish office. ~Fr Thomas

Feasts & Memorials of the Week

St Apollinaris of Ravenna

St Apollinaris was believed to be born in Antioch, in the Roman province of Syria. Tradition has it that he was the first bishop of Ravenna and was appointed by St Peter himself, after which, he faced constant persecution by Roman authorities. He was eventually arrested, tortured and put to death by the sword, although there is no reliable written information about his life and martyrdom. Apollinaris is a patron saint against epilepsy and gout.

St Mary Magdalene

St Mary of Magdala was a disciple of Christ who was healed by him when he cast out seven devils. She stood at the foot of the cross as Jesus died, and went to the tomb to anoint his body on the morning of Easter Sunday. She was the first witness to Jesus' resurrection when she found his tomb empty. In St Mark's Gospel, it is Mary Magdalene to whom the risen Jesus first appears and further to this, in St John's account, Jesus gives her a message to pass on to his brethren.

God Will Provide

A young woman brought her fiancé home to meet her parents. After dinner her mother told her father to find out about the young man. The father invited the fiancé to his study for a talk. 'So what are your plans?' the father asked the young man. 'I am a biblical scholar,' he replied. 'A Biblical scholar. Hmmm,' the father said. 'Admirable, but what will you do to provide a nice house for my daughter to live in?' 'I will study,' the young man replied, 'and God will provide for us.' 'And how will you buy her a beautiful engagement ring, such as she deserves?' asked the father. 'I will concentrate on my studies,' the young man replied, 'God will provide for us.' 'And children?' asked the father. 'How will you support children?' 'Don't worry, sir, God will provide,' replied the fiancé. The conversation proceeded like this, and each time the father questioned, the young idealist insisted that God would provide. Later, the mother asked, 'How did it go, Honey?' The father answered, 'He has no job and no plans, and he thinks I'm God!'
