Third Sunday of Advent - Year B

17 December 2017

First Reading

Is 61:1-2, 10-11

The spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for the Lord has anointed me. He has sent me to bring good news to the poor, to bind up hearts that are broken; to proclaim liberty to captives, freedom to those in prison; to proclaim a year of favour from the Lord. 'I exult for joy in the Lord, my soul rejoices in my God, for he has clothed me in the garments of salvation, he has wrapped me in the cloak of integrity, like a bridegroom wearing his wreath, like a bride adorned in her jewels. 'For as the earth makes fresh things grow, as a garden makes seeds spring up, so will the Lord make both integrity and praise spring up in the sight of the nations.'

Second Reading

1 Thes 5:16-24

Be happy at all times; pray constantly; and for all things give thanks to God, because this is what God expects you to do in Christ Jesus. Never try to suppress the Spirit or treat the gift of prophecy with contempt; think before you do anything – hold on to what is good and avoid every form of evil. May the God of peace make you perfect and holy; and may you all be kept safe and blameless, spirit, soul and body, for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. God has called you and he will not fail you.

Gospel

Jn 1:6-8, 19-28

A man came, sent by God. His name was John. He came as a witness, as a witness to speak for the light, so that everyone might believe through him. He was not the light, only a witness to speak for the light. This is how John appeared as a witness. When the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, 'Who are you?' he not only declared, but he declared quite openly, 'I am not the Christ.' 'Well then,' they asked, 'are you Elijah?' 'I am not,' he said. 'Are you the Prophet?' He answered, 'No.' So they said to him, 'Who are you? We must take back an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself?' So John said, 'I am, as Isaiah prophesied: a voice that cries in the wilderness: Make a straight way for the Lord.' Now these men had been sent by the Pharisees, and they put this further question to him, 'Why are you baptising if you are not the Christ, and not Elijah, and not the prophet?' John replied, 'I baptise with water; but there stands among you – unknown to you – the one who is coming after me; and I am not fit to undo his sandal-strap.' This happened at Bethany, on the far side of the Jordan, where John was baptising.

Antiphons & Readings

Entrance Antiphon Phil 4:4-5

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near.

Responsorial Psalm:

(R) My soul rejoices in my God.

1. My soul glorifies the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God, my Saviour. He looks on his servant in her nothingness; henceforth all ages will call me blessed. (R.)

2. The Almighty works marvels for me. Holy his name! His mercy is from age to age, on those who fear him. (R.)
3. He fills the starving with good things, sends the rich away empty. He protects Israel, his servant, remembering his mercy. (R.)

Gospel Acclamation Is 61:1 (Lk 4:18)

he sent me to bring Good News to the poor. Alleluia!

Next Week's Readings:

2 Sm 7:1-5, 8-12, 14, 16
Rom 16:25-27
Lk 1:26-38

Reflections on John 1:6-8, 19-28

Have You Thought? A time to Rejoice!

This Sunday, the third Sunday of Advent is traditionally known as Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete is the Latin word for Rejoice! Advent was originally celebrated as a five week season and with the same fasting and penitential nature as the season of Lent. The third Sunday, Gaudete, was like a break for rejoicing in the midst of the fasting. When Advent was reduced to four weeks and the nature of the season altered, Gaudete Sunday was retained. The colour of this Sunday is rose—a celebratory colour—and it is reflected in the vestments worn by the priest and in the colour of the third candle used in Advent wreaths.

Living the Gospel: A Witness? Me?

It came as something of a surprise to me to think that other people might observe the way I treated others and draw conclusions about my motivation. It was when I started to work with young people that the truth of this was revealed. I realised that my actions could speak so much louder than anything I might say. I hoped that the young people I was working with might stop some time and think to themselves, 'I wonder why he treats us all that way? I wonder how it fits with that religion stuff he talks about?' Well, I can hope can't I?

Gospel Focus: Same but Different

Having the same gospel passage from two different gospels used in the liturgy in consecutive weeks is an ideal opportunity to highlight the different focus adopted by the different gospels. The language of John's gospel is remarkably different from that of the three synoptic gospels (synoptic = 'seen together'). The synoptics share a fairly common narrative style, while John relies much more on metaphor and imagery—it is a more poetic language. In the gospel account of John the Baptist we see in John's gospel greater emphasis on the conversion around what was occurring, while the Markan version emphasises recording the event.

Christ is our Gift

Johnny told mum that some of the toys she bought are girls' toys and how come she bought them for him. Mum told him, "Dear they are not for you. We are going to gift wrap them and place them under the Christmas tree in the Church." Jonny asked, "Why?" Mummy explained to him that there are children out there who are too poor to get toys and gifts this Christmas. Therefore the Society of St Vincent de Paul of the parish is collecting these gifts through the church and making hampers to distribute to the poor families. Mummy also told her child the importance of sharing and the need to look after the welfare of others. Making others happy is our happiness. Surely this mother was training her child not to be selfish in his life but to be other-centred in his life.

The most destructive sin is selfishness and self-centeredness. Self-centredness is the seed of greed and violence. It also can generate unhealthy pride and arrogance. Turning away from this sin is very important to receive God's gifts. John the Baptist baptised people who confessed their sins and prayed for the forgiveness of their sins. John who came to make a path straight for the Lord, was focussed on repentance and renewal in life. Australians as a rule like to help people in need. Most people in our country are prepared to make sacrifices in their lives to help others. We are living in a humanitarian society. As we participate in many charity activities, we are doing what John the Baptist is asking for, turning away from self-centeredness to other-centeredness. So far so good.

John the Baptist does not stop there. He told them that his baptism is only a preparation for something more profound. There is someone greater than him is coming after him. That is Jesus Christ. John through his call for repentance was preparing the way for Jesus Christ to come. John the Baptist asked his followers to turn to Jesus and follow him, because he is the saviour.

So if we can't be just content with our works of charity and humanitarian concerns. Our spirituality should go much beyond being good and useful for others. Then we will be in tune with what John the Baptist is calling us to do. We as Christians should do more than being good people. We need to follow Jesus Christ. Let us acknowledge Christ as our Saviour and connect with him by praying with Bible and participating in Eucharist. See your works of charity and self-sacrifices as preparation to receive Christ. Thus we shall become Christ bearers. It will also enable us to present Christ to others. The ultimate Gift we can receive as well as give for this Christmas and afterwards is Christ.

Could you distribute Christmas Hampers?

The parish looking for volunteers to distribute 15 Christmas Hampers to the needy in our parish. Society St Vincent de Paul are preparing the hampers for the parish. Parishioners distributing them to the needy will make it truly a parish gift to those people. You will be provided the list of addresses to deliver these gifts. Anyone volunteering is welcome to contact Fr Thomas.

Final Report by the Royal Commission for Institutional Response to Child Sexual Abuse

The Royal Commission has handed over to Governor General on Friday 15 December, its report on the institutional response to child sexual abuse. It is a massive 17 volume document covering nearly five years of hearing. The leaders of the Church will be studying the report. Meanwhile Archbishop Anthony Fisher has issued a statement. He said, "Many told their stories with great courage, even at great personal cost, revisiting traumatic experiences. I say again how sorry I am that you were hurt in this way by people you should have been able to trust. I hope the release of this report provides some comfort to you, your family and friends with the determination that what has been revealed in the pages of this report can never be repeated." He also said, "I can assure you I will not rest there and I commit myself and the Catholic Church in Sydney to do our best for survivors of abuse to ensure this terrible chapter is never repeated.

We will, I pray, be a humbler, purer, more compassionate Church as a result of the Commission's work and the scrutiny we have received."

Copies of his statement in full are made available for you in the foyer of the Church.

2018 Year of Youth: Open new horizons for spreading joy

Sr Dorothy Bayliss RSC

The Parishioners may know Sister Dorothy Bayliss who returned to South Sudan to be missionary there. She has returned from South Sudan, due to ill health. I visited her last Wednesday. After some rest and a retreat she will be moving to Brisbane to resume a ministry with Refugees, Asylum Seekers, the Homeless and with Trafficked Women and Girls. Sr Dorothy said,

“My arrival there where my little clinic was situated was a horrific scene I was shocked to see the change and to hear what the people have been suffering for month. Just outside my door were thousands of men women and children who had fled from various areas due to the ongoing violence and killings. I was the lone person offering medical attention so once again it was a 24/7 days a week which I didn't mind but got a bit tired especially from the night calls.”

She went on tell about the circumstances that made her to leave South Sudan. “In the camp I fell and broke a bone in my right hand, badly bruised my hip but tried to manage until I got pneumonia and a severe case of malaria my first ever in all my years on mission.

As there was no medical help readily available I had to come home for treatment, which broke my heart. I am now feeling very much better thank God except for the heart ache that goes with leaving the suffering poor, and not understanding God's plan in all of this.

I know now that my time in SS has come to an end, which is very sad but I know God has His own plan so I am trusting in Him which I have always tried to do all of my years.”

Sr Dorothy thanked all parishioners and friends for your prayers and support. She begged the parish to continue to pray for the suffering and voiceless poor in South Sudan. Their sufferings are hidden from the world these days.

She also wished all parishioners and friends peace and blessings for this festive season.

I have also included some of the photos she shared with me. These pictures give us glimpse into the mission in South Sudan

Fr George Kallumkal

Fr George Kallumkal sends his Christmas greetings to parishioners and all other friends of him. He has recovered from the bad malaria he had. He is very happy to hear about the success of the fund raising we had for him. The response to the "Sponsor a Brick" our major fund raising program was very good. The money will be transferred to his mission soon. He will be able to stabilise the school building with our contribution. He would like to thank all benefactors for their good will and generosity.

Society of St Vincent de Paul

It would be good to revive Berala Conference of St Vincent de Paul. Therefore anyone interested in becoming a member of the Conference in Berala is welcome to contact the parish office. Should there be enough interest we will be able to resume the Conference some time in the New Year. Currently the Parish Schools have their own Mini Vinnies.

Lenten Programs

It might look too early to think of Lenten Program now, even before Christmas. Really it is not so. By the time the holiday month finishes, it will be Lent. By the time we tried to order Lenten Program books in the past years, it was too late and the books were sold out. Therefore we had to pay for the licence to print them ourselves in house. Therefore this year I would like you to inform the parish office well in advance, preferably early January, how many copies of the program book you will require. We will be getting the resource from Brisbane Liturgy Office.

Reading Mark

Following the enthusiastic reception I had for the Bible Study Program on Matthew's Gospel this year, I will be offering a Bible Study, 'Reading Mark' during Lent 2018. It will be 90 minutes sessions on Wednesday evenings, starting at 7 PM. The venue will be St Joseph House Berala. If you are interested enrol for it by the end of January 2018.

Children to be nativity characters, Human Couple and Baby for Nativity Scene

Christmas vigil at 7 PM on Sunday 24 December will have special focus on families with small children. To keep up with the tradition, all children are invited to dress up as one of the characters in the nativity scene. This includes, Mary, Joseph, Shepherds, Magi, and Angels. Simple costumes can do the job. All dressed up children may come the Mass 15 minutes early so that they can be organised to walk in the entrance procession. We are looking for a couple with a baby to form a still presentation of the nativity in front of the Altar in the first half of the Mass. Any volunteers are welcome to speak with Fr Thomas for the details.

Christmas Giving Tree

A tree has been erected in the foyer of the church and all are invited to leave a gift. Please label wrapped gifts with who they may be most appropriate for (i.e. child, man). Your generosity will help bring a smile to those less fortunate.

Christmas Carol Festival

You are invited to come along and bring the whole family, some rugs to sit on and your Christmas voices of course!

You can purchase battery candles for $2 and glowsticks for only $1. Carol booklets will also be available so that we can sing with joy in anticipation of the coming of the Christ Child!

Practices for Carol Festival & Midnight Mass

Australian Catholic Youth Festival

The Australian Catholic Youth Festival has been an outstanding success. There were more than 20,000 registrations and the young people participated with joy and enthusiasm in the prayers, workshops, plenaries and general activities. The Closing Mass was very well attended by festival participants and by parishioners of Sydney. It was a beautiful celebration with the Archbishop of Sydney, 29 Bishops of Australia, 200 priests and 15,000 in the congregation. The Festival was an extraordinary achievement for our Archdiocese and the support of the priests and parishioners is greatly appreciated. Thank you to the hundreds of volunteers who gave up their time on Thursday, Friday and Saturday to make it such a special event. Go to www.xt3.com/live and watch "on demand" the major events including the Closing Mass.

Pray for the Parish Priest Emeritus

Fr Mark Spora, and Fr Graham Kings are in need of our prayer. They both are not well. Fr Kings is suffering from advanced form of dementia and Fr Spora is very frail. He is recovering from fall he had a few weeks ago. During this Christmas season, please include them and all other priests and religious who have worked to bring the experience of God near to us, in your prayers.

Just for Laughs

On Christmas Eve, Nathan thought it would be nice to buy his wife a little gift for the next day. Always short of money, he thought long and hard about what that present might be. Unable to decide, Nathan entered Debenhams and in the cosmetics section he asked the girl, 'How about some perfume?' She showed him a bottle costing $150. 'Too expensive,' muttered Nathan. The young lady returned with a smaller bottle for $50. 'Oh dear,' Nathan groused, 'still far too much.' Growing rather annoyed at Nathan's meanness, the sales girl brought out a tiny $10 bottle and offered it to him. Nathan became really agitated, 'What I mean', he whined, 'is I'd like to see something really cheap.' So the sales girl handed him a mirror.
