THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER - YR B

15 APRIL 2018

First Reading

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

Peter said to the people: 'You are Israelites, and it is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, who has glorified his servant Jesus, the same Jesus you handed over and then disowned in the presence of Pilate, after Pilate had decided to release him. It was you who accused the Holy One, the Just One, you who demanded the reprieve of a murderer while you killed the prince of life. God, however, raised him from the dead, and to that fact we are the witnesses.

'Now I know, brothers, that neither you nor your leaders had any idea what you were really doing; this was the way God carried out what he had foretold, when he said through all his prophets that his Christ would suffer. Now you must repent and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out.'

Second Reading

1 Jn 2:1-5

I am writing this, my children, to stop you sinning; but if anyone should sin, we have our advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, who is just; he is the sacrifice that takes our sins away, and not only ours, but the whole world's. We can be sure that we know God only by keeping his commandments. Anyone who says, 'I know him', and does not keep his commandments, is a liar, refusing to admit the truth.

But when anyone does obey what he has said, God's love comes to perfection in him.

Gospel

Lk 24:35-48

The disciples told their story of what had happened on the road and how they had recognised Jesus at the breaking of bread.

They were still talking about all this when Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you!' In a state of alarm and fright, they thought they were seeing a ghost. But he said, 'Why are you so agitated, and why are these doubts rising in your hearts? Look at my hands and feet; yes, it is I indeed. Touch me and see for yourselves; a ghost has no flesh and bones as you can see I have.' And as he said this he showed them his hands and feet. Their joy was so great that they could not believe it, and they stood dumbfounded; so he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' And they offered him a piece of grilled fish, which he took and ate before their eyes.

Then he told them, 'This is what I meant when I said, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses, in the Prophets and in the Psalms, has to be fulfilled.' He then opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'So you see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this.'

MASS INTENTIONS FOR THE WEEK

SIN is Not Lack of Niceties

In December 2014, an image of Pope Francis was circulated via social media, with a strike quote appended to it suggesting that the pontiff had said “It is not necessary to believe in God to be a good person” It was a paraphrased version of a homily the Pope preached in May 2013. This posting implies that all good people are without sin and the Sacraments are irrelevant. Such an attitude is shared by many students and parents of the Catholic schools. Many of the lapsed Christians also could be sharing the same view.

The question therefore is, “What is sin?” Everyone knows that is stealing, killing, violence, abuse of any kind and sex outside marriage are sins. Along with that there is also the misconception that lack politeness is the worst of sins. Therefore we train ourselves and our children to be likeable people. Many seem to think that politeness equates holiness. As a pastor I hear many times people saying, “I don’t have to go to Church to be a good person.”

‘Loving God and our neighbour as ourselves’ is the defining factor of a Disciple of Christ. Anything that goes contrary to this basic precepts of Jesus is sinful. Loving thy neighbour means to reach out to all people in need. Thanks to the humanitarian society we live in, this part of the commandment is understood easily. But when it comes to loving God, the same cannot be said.

If we love God, we will be in constant touch with God. It is like a child constantly communicating with his/her loving parents. When we pray we are in communication with God. When we use the Word of God for reflection we are communicating with God. But as the Disciples of Christ we have a special and privileged way of communicating with Christ. We come into a union with the Body of Christ through the reception of blessed bread and blessed wine at the Eucharist. By becoming one with Christ’s Body, we ourselves become the Body of Christ. If we are part of the Body of Christ we are Holy People as well.

Therefore Paul in his letter to Colossians calls them “God’s Holy People”. (Ref Colossians 1:1-2) In the 1st Eucharistic prayer, the priest says, “we your servants and your holy people” (Ref. The order of Mass #92). Becoming part of the Body of Christ through the Holy Communion is not an optional extra for us. At the Last Supper, instituting the Eucharist, Christ commanded, “Do this in memory of me”. (Ref Luke 22:19). Therefore any failure in our part to make Holy Communion with the Body of Christ through the Eucharist is a failure in our love for God. Failing to love God is a sin.

In our Eucharistic celebration, we are preaching therefore the repentance for the forgiveness of sins, just as the disciples on the road to Emmaus were told according to the Gospel of Luke. (Ref Lk 24:48). Sin is not neglecting niceties. Sin is failure to love God and our Neighbour. By the virtue of Christ’s resurrection, we can seek forgiveness for our sins through the Body of Christ, the Church.

REFLECTIONS ON LUKE 24:35-48

Gospel Focus: Peace be with you

When Jesus appears in the midst of the disciples, his first words to them are, “Peace be with you!” His appearance among them obviously agitated the disciples who were already hiding, in fear of their lives and devastated by the loss of their leader days earlier. Jesus’ calming and reassuring words, “Peace be with you!” recognise the reality of what state the disciples are in. The words demonstrate that Jesus is meeting the disciples ‘where they are’ - he recognises their distress and fear and responds with words that accept what they’re feeling but reassure them of his love and care. They are words that Jesus speaks to us too!

Have You Thought? Is ‘Literal’ wrong?

Is there really something intrinsically wrong about a literal interpretation of scripture? Not at all! It is indeed an essential tool of any scriptural interpretation. It is of course important that we first and foremost understand the text as it is written - we have to have a literal understanding of the words that are used and what they mean. The problem arises when this is as far as we go. If we stop at this stage then we are shutting ourselves off from the richness of the scriptures. If we fail to dig below the surface then we are denying ourselves the opportunity of scrutinising our lives in the light of the scripture.

If you know anyone interested in Catholic Church and Faith invite them to the Catholic Inquiry Night.
