3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time - 27 January 2013

From your Pastor

We are part of a Body, we have a mission

Last Monday Barrack Obama was sworn in once again as the president of the United States of America. Apparently a million people flocked into Washington DC to witness the occasion and celebrate it. All ears and the whole world were keenly listening to what the President was telling. They were keen to find out how Obama is going to secure their future and organise their society. Their economy needs rebuilding. Their social welfare needs bettering. The American society needs reorganisation.

Four centuries before Christ there was a pressing need to rebuild a community. When the Israelites came back to Jerusalem in 5th century BCE, after the Babylonian captivity, they were faced with a demoralised community and the spoils of a destroyed temple. They had to rebuild the temple. They also had to rebuild the people into a community. Nehemiah, seeing this need and wanting to do God's call, stood up and preached to the people. His sermon lasted a lot longer than Obama's; it lasted half a day! People endured it; rather they were delighted, because Nehemiah was addressing the issue of rebuilding the community and the Temple.

The first sermon of Jesus was preached in his local Synagogue in Nazareth. Quoting prophet Isaiah, he explained how the promises are coming true in him. Jesus was building the people into the Kingdom of God.

Sermons and teachings of the church are to keep building the people into the Kingdom of God. In a culture where radio talk shows and other media are so much influential, Church teachings and homilies find it hard work to get the message across. Media always go for the Lowest Common Denominator. The influence of the media makes people to use LCD of the media as the benchmark for moral and religious life. That is where the danger is. Therefore catechesis and homilies are important.

Sometimes preaching the values of the Kingdom of God could be challenging. In 1943 Pope Pius XII issued an encyclical letter about the Church. It was called The Mystical Body of Christ. This letter reflected the teaching of St Paul's letter to Corinthians as we heard in today's second reading. St Paul uses the allegory of various organs in a human body to speak about the unity and mutual love of the members of the Church. The Pope spoke about the love of Christ for every member of the Church and the love by which we ought to esteem and value one another. The irony is that this beautiful teaching was given at a time when the whole world was locked into the most brutal and blood thirsty war in the history – the 2nd World War. In an extreme culture of death and destruction, Pope Pius XII taught of life born of mutual respect and life.

So there is no need to wait for any kind of appropriate time to work on building up the Body of Christ, the Church. The kind of things I would like to focus on this year to build up our parish community includes working on the Hospitality. Pam Snell is co-ordinating the roster for hospitality after weekend Masses in Berala Church. William Andrew and Joe Moses are working on Hospitality after Masses at Auburn South church. We have had a few meetings to work on an Alpha Program for the parishes. The Youth Choir is taking shape. There are already about twenty five young people committed to the choir. I will be speaking with Chantelle from Sydney Alliance to develop the social justice dimension of the parish. We together shall build up the Body of Christ in our parish community and provide opportunity for parishioners to utilise their God given talents in that building up. We all have a mission and we shall fulfil it.

Who is a Catechist

Who volunteers to be a catechist? They range from mothers, fathers, grandparents to students just starting university, nurses who fit classes around work shifts, office workers who fit in a class before work or during their lunch break, teachers on maternity leave, teachers who work part time, several recently retired teachers and teachers in training, students in High School as well as retirees from a number of professions. Some of our parishes even have the parish priest, assistant priest or deacon in training working in the schools with their catechists. Why do these people volunteer? Their reasons are varied. Some have been recruited by their spouses. A retired teacher kept seeing the notice in the parish bulletin and felt she should respond. Others said the children needed to hear about God and they wanted to be part of the solution, not part of the problem. A student realised she had spare time and that she should volunteer. Still others speak of being asked, seeing notices appealing for catechists and being moved by recruitment messages. All these different people will bring their special gifts to this apostolate. If you fit into any of these profiles or reasons for volunteering then speak to Fr Thomas or call the CCD (Confraternity of Christian Doctrine) on (02) 9390 5122.

Catechists Sunday

Next Sunday is Catechists Sunday. Though the Scripture Classes in public Schools will start only a week or two later, all catechists are invited to be recommissioned next Sunday. Please present yourself to the priest before the Mass so that he can call you up during the Mass to pray and commission you. The first meeting of the Catechists will be at 11 AM on Wednesday, 6 February, in the presbytery at Berala. All Catechists of both Berala and Auburn South parishes are invited to the meeting. It will be the planning meeting for the year.

Be a Host for Lenten Prayer Groups

Lent is a special time of spiritual exercises. It is a time for preparing for the most important feast of all – Easter. One of the special spiritual exercises is the Lenten Group Prayers. So far Jenny Michael and Pam Snell have organised groups of friends to meet in their homes for Lenten Prayer. I would like to see more parishioners organising groups of friends to meet in their homes for Lenten Prayer. When you have decided on offering hospitality for your friends in your home and inviting them to a Lenten Prayer, let me know so that I can get the resources for you and your group. If you are willing to lead a group and do not have a venue to do so, you are welcome to use the Jubilee Hall or the St Joseph School facility. Please let me know, if you would like me to organise it. Please send me an email or give me telephone call to register your name as a leader. My contact details are on the front of this Bulletin. Since Lent starts on 13 February this year, I need to know the names as soon as possible. After getting a list of leaders, all others will have opportunity to sign up to join a group of their choice.

Feasts of the Week

28 January – St Thomas Aquinas, priest, doctor. Memorial.

St. Thomas Aquinas, priest and doctor of the Church, patron of all universities and of students. He was born toward the end of the year 1226. He was the son of Landolph, Count of Aquino, who, when St. Thomas was five years old, placed him under the care of the Benedictines of Monte Casino. His teachers were surprised at the progress he made, for he surpassed all his fellow pupils in learning as well as in the practice of virtue.

When he became of age to choose his state of life, St. Thomas renounced the things of this world and resolved to enter the Order of St. Dominic in spite of the opposition of his family. In 1243, at the age of seventeen, he joined the Dominicans of Naples. Some members of his family resorted to all manner of means over a two year period to break his constancy. They even went so far as to send an impure woman to tempt him. But all their efforts were in vain and St. Thomas persevered in his vocation. As a reward for his fidelity, God conferred upon him the gift of perfect chastity, which has merited for him the title of the "Angelic Doctor".

31 January – St John Bosco, priest. Memorial.

What do dreams have to do with prayer? Aren't they just random images of our mind? In 1867 Pope Pius IX was upset with John Bosco because he wouldn't take his dreams seriously enough. Nine years earlier when Pope Pius IX met with the future saint who worked with neglected boys, he learned of the dreams that John had been having since the age of nine, dreams that had revealed God's will for John's life. So Pius IX had made a request, "Write down these dreams and everything else you have told me, minutely and in their natural sense." Pius IX saw John's dreams as a legacy for those John worked with and as an inspiration for those he ministered to.

Despite Scripture evidence and Church tradition respecting dreams, John had encountered skepticism when he had his first dream at the age of nine. The young Bosco dreamed that he was in a field with a crowd of children. The children started cursing and misbehaving. John jumped into the crowd to try to stop them -- by fighting and shouting. Suddenly a man with a face filled with light appeared dressed in a white flowing mantle. The man called John over and made him leader of the boys. John was stunned at being put in charge of these unruly gang. The man said, "You will have to win these friends of yours not with blows but with gentleness and kindness." As adults, most of us would be reluctant to take on such a mission -- and nine year old John was even less pleased.

"I'm just a boy," he argued, "how can you order me to do something that looks impossible." The man answered, "What seems so impossible you must achieve by being obedient and acquiring knowledge." Then the boys turned into the wild animals they had been acting like. The man told John that this is the field of John's life work. Once John changed and grew in humility, faithfulness, and strength, he would see a change in the children -- a change that the man now demonstrated. The wild animals suddenly turned into gentle lambs.

2 February – The Presentation of the Lord. Feast.

Today the Church celebrates the feast of the Presentation of the Lord which occurs forty days after the birth of Jesus and is also known as Candlemas day, since the blessing and procession of candles is included in today's liturgy.

According to the 1962 Missal of Bl. John XXIII the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite, today is the end of the Christmas season. The reformed calendar has designated that the Sunday after Epiphany, the Feast of the Baptism of Our Lord, is the end. This feast in the Ordinary Form is no longer referred to as the "Purification of Mary" but the "Presentation of the Lord".

Today's first reading gives us an important insight to understand profoundly the mystery of the Lord's Presentation in the Temple by Mary and Joseph, in accordance with the canons of Mosaic Law. The text, taken from the Prophet Malachi says, 'I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me; and suddenly there will come to the temple the Lord who you seek' (Mal 3:1). From all the Gospels, we know that it is the Precursor, St John the Baptist who was born 6 months before Jesus, that God sent to prepare His way. Putting these evangelical facts together, we can comprehend the words of the Prophet Malachi.

At Sunday school they were teaching how God created everything, including human beings. Little Johnny seemed especially intent when they told him how Eve was created out of one of Adam's ribs. Later in the week his mother noticed him lying down as though he were ill, and said, Johnny what is the matter? Little Johnny responded, "I have a pain in my side. I think I'm going to have a wife."
