Someone Missing in the Crib

Today I realise that there is someone missing in our Christmas Crib set. It is the figure of someone very important to Jesus and should have been very important to the Crib set. But he is missing from the crib. Jesus was introduced as Christ by this person. But nobody speaks of him during Christmas. It is John the Baptist.

While we are busy preparing for Christmas, John called to prepare yourself to receive Jesus Christ. His call for preparation was different to how we normally would think of preparing for Christmas. He called for repentance as a preparation to receive the promised Saviour of the World. We will be mad, not to listen to him. A mad person does the same thing again and again without any proper result. If we continue to do the same sins and mistakes again and again and complain that there is no inner peace or joy, we are no different to a mad person. We wish for peace and joy during Christmas. Let us trust in God and repent for our sins as John the Baptist demands. By doing so we can attain true fruits of Christmas. Let us make sure God gifts us with joy and peace.

Having received Christ into our lives, let us experience stronger marriage, trusted friendships, harmonious families, powerful spirituality, and clear purpose in life. Make sure over the next two weeks you work intensely on it.

Prayer for Peace

Almighty God and Creator, You are the Father of all people on the earth. I beseech you to guide all the nations and their leaders in the ways of justice and peace. Protect us from the evils of injustice, prejudice, exploitation, conflict, and war. Help us to put away mistrust, bitterness, and hatred. Teach us to cease the storing and using of implements of war. Lead us to find peace, respect, and freedom. Unite us in the making and sharing of tools of peace against ignorance, poverty, disease, and oppression. Grant that we may grow in harmony, and friendship as brothers and sisters created in your image, to your honour and praise. Amen.

Prayer and collection for Middle East

This Sunday will be a day of prayer for the persecuted Christians of the Middle East. A special collection will be taken this weekend after all masses so that financial assistance can be provided to Catholic communities in this area. A delegation of Australian Bishops will visit the Middle east to offer prayerful and financial support prior to Christmas

Christmas Star

The Star is a rich symbol of Christmas hope. Austrends are selling special red stars with light globes and attachments for $30 out of which $5 is given to the persecuted Christians in IRAQ. These stars will make good decorations for Christmas. You can view a sample in SPC piety Stall and order them with the parish office or piety stall.

Day of Solidarity with Christians of the Middle East

Sunday 7 December 2014 has been designated a Day of Solidarity with the Christians of the Middle East by the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference.

The Australian Bishops received a letter of request from the Conference of Bishops and Representatives of the Middle Eastern Apostolic Churches in Australia and New Zealand seeking the support of the Australian Catholics.

The Conference unanimously supported the request that 7 December 2014 be a Day of Solidarity, involving prayer and a financial offering to help alleviate the suffering of Christians, especially the many Iraqi refugees.

The request comes as we approach the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ at Christmas.

We are aware that the situation for Christians and other minorities in the Middle East is deteriorating by the day, especially as the northern winter will set in soon. Communities that have been present in the region since apostolic times are being driven out in the midst of unspeakable atrocities. The present tragedy in the Middle East not only impacts upon the communities of the area, but has far-reaching implications for the peace and security of the world.

Considering the widespread significance of the crisis, we are inviting all Catholic communities to join with us on 7 December 2014 as we ask for the mercy of God for our persecuted brothers and sisters in the Middle East.

President of the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference, Archbishop Denis Hart said, "We hear the plea of our brother bishops from the Eastern Churches and we join them in expressing our grave concerns about the suffering of the Christian communities, that trace their roots back to apostolic times, and the danger of their gradual disappearance from their ancient homelands".

On 14 December 2014, a delegation of Australian Catholic Bishops will visit refugees in Kurdistan, Iraq and Lebanon to offer spiritual support and humanitarian aid. The delegation will comprise Archbishop of Canberra and Goulburn Christopher Prowse, the Archbishop of Hobart Julian Porteous, the Melkite Archbishop Robert Rabbat, the Chaldean Archbishop Jibrael Kassab and the Maronite Archbishop Antoine -Charbel Tarabay. Archbishop Kassab said, "All the Christians of Iraq desperately need our prayers and support. These, our wounded brothers and sisters, were brutally forced to leave their hometowns and all their belongings in order to remain faithful to Jesus Christ".

The Australian Catholic Bishops Conference urges Australian Catholics to join their Christian brothers and sisters of the Middle East in showing the world that while "some trust in chariots and horses, we trust in the Lord, our God" (Psalm 20:7)

This week we welcome into the Catholic faith
Tylanni Ann Raso & Zen Nicholas Raso
May they always know the love of God and feel His guiding hand
throughout their lives

Feasts of the Week.

8 December - The Immaculate conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The Feast of the Immaculate Conception is the subject of a lot of misconceptions. Perhaps the most common one, held even by many Catholics, is that it celebrates the conception of Christ in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary. That the feast occurs only 17 days before Christmas should make the error obvious! We celebrate another feast—the Annunciation of the Lord—on March 25, exactly nine months before Christmas. It was at the Annunciation, when the Blessed Virgin Mary humbly accepted the honour bestowed on her by God and announced by the angel Gabriel, that the conception of Christ took place.

The Feast of the Immaculate Conception, in its oldest form, goes back to the 7th century, when churches in the East began celebrating the Feast of the Conception of Saint Anne, the mother of Mary. In other words, this feast celebrates the conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the womb of Saint Anne; and nine months later, on September 8, we celebrate the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

8 December - St Lucy Died at Syracuse in Sicily, probably in the persecution of the emperor Diocletian in 304. Widely venerated from the earliest times, her memorial has long been kept on this day. Probably because her name is suggestive of light, her intercession has been sought for eyesight problems. Named in Eucharistic Prayer I (The Roman Canon) and remembered as a youth, radiant with Christian faith and courage.
