THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

16 MAY 2021

The Body will Follow the Head

Whenever the leader of a movement passes on, the question in the minds of all those concerned would be “what next?”. Ascension of the Lord is a feast that relates to a similar question: what next for the disciples of Jesus after he has gone from the face of earth. In answer, Jesus told them two things. First of all “Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Good News to all creation”. Then about those who believe in him as Christ he said this. “These are the signs that will be associated with believers: in my name they will cast out devils; they will have the gift of tongues; they will pick up snakes in their hands, and be unharmed should they drink deadly poison; they will lay their hands on the sick, who will recover”. That means the Disciples of Christ will be known as people who are capable of liberating their fellow human beings from anything that would diminish their God given dignity. The ‘gift of tongues’ is the ability of the disciples to empathise with people. They will offer comforting words to those who are not understood or not listened to by the society. It is not so much the poison of snakes that would harm the human life now; It is the ideologies and movements of hatred, violence other evils that are more damaging. For a while the world thought the evil of paedophilia that rocked the Church, the Body of Christ, will finish it off. But we see the Spirit of God helping the Church root out those evils and rejuvenate the Christian lie. Now we see the powerful Bishops Conference of Germany on the verge of a schism through their unilateral decision to bless same sex couples. Such schisms are poisons the true disciples are made to drink. Just as Arianism and other schisms which rocked the church, could not kill the Body of Christ, this schism also will be overcome by the Church.

Therefore, you are not to stand there staring into the sky as if you lost everything. You, as disciples of Jesus are filled with the Holy Spirit. Acknowledging the healing power the Disciples of Christ are blessed with, Pope Francis is promoting ‘Synodality’ in the Universal Church. It means the Holy Father wants all those who are chosen by the Holy Spirit to lead the Church to put their hands and minds together to heal humanity, particularly the Body of Christ, wherever that is necessary. Also know that Jesus will come again; that will be through you Christians who make up the living Body of Christ on earth. Where the head, Jesus, has gone, the Body of which you are members will follow.

ANTIPHONS & READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Acts 1:11

Men of Galilee, why gaze in wonder at the heavens?
This Jesus whom you saw ascending into heaven will return as you saw him go, alleluia.

First Reading

Acts 1:1-11

In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. 'It is,' he had said, 'what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'

Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.'

As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, 'Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 46:2-3. 6-9. R. v.6

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

All peoples, clap your hands, cry to God with shouts of joy! For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, great king over all the earth. R

God goes up with shouts of joy; the Lord goes up with trumpet blast. Sing praise for God, sing praise, sing praise to our king, sing praise. R

God is king of all the earth. Sing praise with all your skill. God is king over the nations; God reigns on his holy throne. R

Second Reading

Eph 1:17-23

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him. May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit and how infinitely great is the power that he has exercised for us believers. This you can tell from the strength of his power at work in Christ, when he used it to raise him from the dead and to make him sit at his right hand, in heaven, far above every Sovereignty, Authority, Power, or Domination, or any other name that can be named, not only in this age, but also in the age to come. He has put all things under his feet, and made him, as the ruler of everything, the head of the Church; which is his body, the fullness of him who fills the whole creation.

Gospel Acclamation

Mt 28:19. 20

Alleluia, alleluia!

Go and teach all people my gospel. I am with you always, until the end of the world.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mk 16:15-20

Jesus showed himself to the Eleven and said to them, 'Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Good News to all creation. He who believes and is baptised is saved; he who does not believe will be condemned. These are the signs that will be associated with believers: in my name they will cast out devils; they will have the gift of tongues; they will pick up snakes in their hands, and be unharmed should they drink deadly poison; they will lay their hands on the sick, who will recover.'

And so the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven: there at the right hand of God he took his place, while they, going out, preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the signs that accompanied it.

Communion Antiphon

Mt 28:20

Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age, alleluia.

Next Week's Readings:

1st Reading: Acts 2:1-11

2nd Reading: 1 Cor 12:3-7, 12-13

Gospel: Jn 20:19-23

REFLECTIONS ON MARK 16:15-20

Living the Gospel – Proclaim Good News

Francis of Assisi is credited with saying, 'Preach the gospel at all times and when necessary, use words!' In every interaction we have we say so much about who we are, what we think of the other person and what we believe – even without opening our mouth. Our actions and attitudes proclaim our beliefs more powerfully than our words ever do. If we claim to be concerned about justice and yet behave unjustly then it is our actions, not our words, that will be heard! When we are called to 'proclaim the Good News' we are called to do this first and foremost in action.

Scriptural context – Acts

Throughout this Easter season, the first reading in the Sunday liturgy is taken from the Acts of the Apostles and so both the first and second readings come from the New Testament. (Normally, the First Reading is taken from the Old Testament.) This week's first reading account of the Ascension is the very beginning of the book of Acts. This book and the Gospel of Luke are now recognised as being by the same author. The book of Acts records the events involving the followers of Jesus after his death and the growth of communities of believers who sought to follow Jesus' ways.

Different View – Snake handlers and Faith healers

There are certainly Christians who interpret literally Jesus' description of the signs that will be associated with believers. We have all seen images of old Revivalist meetings where people were called forth to be healed by touch and have evil spirits driven from them. Much of this practice can be traced to this week's gospel. The many evangelical churches and the tele-evangelists who dominate our early morning television screens operate out of this tradition and generally have a very literal interpretation of scripture. It is based in a belief that God acts in the world through miraculous intervention rather than through the slow and steady presence of individuals like you and me.

No one has ever ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven

From a sermon by Saint Augustine

Today our Lord Jesus Christ ascended into heaven; let our hearts ascend with him. Listen to the words of the Apostle: If you have risen with Christ, set your hearts on the things that are above where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God; seek the things that are above, not the things that are on earth. For just as he remained with us even after his ascension, so we too are already in heaven with him, even though what is promised us has not yet been fulfilled in our bodies.

Christ is now exalted above the heavens, but he still suffers on earth all the pain that we, the members of his body, have to bear. He showed this when he cried out from above: Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? and when he said: I was hungry and you gave me food.

Why do we on earth not strive to find rest with him in heaven even now, through the faith, hope and love that unites us to him? While in heaven he is also with us; and we while on earth are with him. He is here with us by his divinity, his power and his love. We cannot be in heaven, as he is on earth, by divinity, but in him, we can be there by love.

He did not leave heaven when he came down to us; nor did he withdraw from us when he went up again into heaven. The fact that he was in heaven even while he was on earth is borne out by his own statement: No one has ever ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man, who is in heaven.

These words are explained by our oneness with Christ, for he is our head and we are his body. No one ascended into heaven except Christ because we also are Christ: he is the Son of Man by his union with us, and we by our union with him are the sons of God. So the Apostle says: Just as the human body, which has many members, is a unity, because all the different members make one body, so is it also with Christ. He too has many members, but one body.

Out of compassion for us he descended from heaven, and although he ascended alone, we also ascend, because we are in him by grace. Thus, no one but Christ descended and no one but Christ ascended; not because there is no distinction between the head and the body, but because the body as a unity cannot be separated from the head.

Sacrament of Confirmation

Dear Parents/Guardians,

The parish would like to invite all children in Year 6 and above to receive the sacrament of Confirmation. Please note to receive the sacrament of Confirmation, you must have received the below sacraments prior to 2021.

- The sacrament of Baptism.
- The sacrament of Reconciliation
- The sacrament of First Holy Communion

Kindly note the sacrament of Confirmation will be celebrated this year at St Mary's Cathedral on Sunday the 8th of August at 3.30pm as part of the Central Deanery group.

The Confirmation Preparation Program for children and their families will commence on 23rd June at 7pm in the church. There will be five classes that students must attend with a parent or adult. Further, students and their family are required to attend the Commitment Mass on Saturday, 26th June, at 5pm at St Peter Chanel & St Joseph Parish.

Please note active participation is essential if you wish to have your child receive this sacrament. These classes will be in person and there will be some online tasks assigned as a part of the preparation program. Take the time to complete your registration online (visit: <https://www.stpeter-stjoseph.org.au/confirmation/>) before the set due date 31 May 2021 and read the enclosed documents carefully and add them in your calendars.

Please feel free to contact me via phone or email. We look forward in sharing this journey with you and your family. God bless!

CatholicCare Partnership with the Parish

I have always been looking greater and enhanced out reach for people in need of various assistance, like housing, domestic issues, mental problems, and such. I am pleased that now CatholicCare has a new initiative to partnership with Parishes in Sydney. So far Liverpool and Fairfield parishes have successfully established the pilot programs. I invited CatholicCare representatives to speak about the program to the first meeting of the Pastoral Council this year. Since then I have had a few more meetings with them. We are working on employing a trained person one a week in the parish. The goal of this program is seven fold.

- Break down barriers in understanding, accessing and navigating community support services
- Provide advocacy for people most in need.
- Increase community knowledge of support services.
- Reduce social isolation, meaningfully connect individuals, and help them become active participants within the broader community.
- Build the Parish's capacity to respond to those in need.
- Connect the parish to the wider community.
- Evangelisation through serving the community.

The parish will be soliciting grants and fundraising to finance this initiative.

This parish program will be taken to Pastoral Council and Finance Committee again for their advice. I hope that this Parish Program can be commenced in July this year.

~Fr Thomas

Youth Festival

Along with the Parish festivities in the week of its Patron Saints, St Peter Chanel, and St Joseph the Worker, SPC School sponsored a Youth Festival. It was well attended and brought about a lot of joy and enthusiasm. Some pictures from the Festival can be viewed on SPC School FaceBook.

More of such festivals and 'Called Chosen' gatherings are to be planned for the rest of the year. Parents may keep their eyes out for more info and invitations.

New RCIA

There are always people making inquiries about becoming Catholics. A new program of RCIA will be commencing in the Parish this year.

Anyone interested in the Catholic Church and faith is welcome to contact the Parish Office on 9644 7787 or info@stpeter-stjoseph.org.au. Fr Thomas will be meeting with the applicants before a suitable program of instructions is presented.

Mass Count

Our parish, along with all Catholic parishes in Australia, is invited to undertake the five-yearly National Count of Attendance this month. Held every five years since 2001, the project is a simple head count of all attenders at all parishes across Australia over the four weekends of May. The National Count of Attendance is held in the same year as the Australian Census, which will take place in August. National Centre for Pastoral Research director Trudy Dantis said that it allows for information gathered from the two projects to be analysed together.

A message from the Archdiocese of Sydney

Child abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you – or anyone you know – have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, phone (02) 9390 5810 or email safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.

Come, Follow Me: Discipleship Retreats with the Dominican Sisters of Saint Cecilia

What does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus and how can I grow as a disciple? Throughout June and July the Dominican Sisters of St Cecilia are working with the Sydney Centre for Evangelisation to offer three retreat days to assist the people of Sydney to enter more deeply into their own experience of being a disciple of Jesus, in keeping with our mission plan Go Make Disciples. These retreats will explore what it means to be a disciple, how to grow as a disciple, and how we can respond to the gift of discipleship by serving in our parish and in the wider community. Dates (with locations to be announced): Sunday 13 June | Saturday 26 June | Saturday 17 July.

This is a free event, with light lunch included. Registrations open soon! For more information: contact the Parish Renewal Team at parishrenewal@sydneycatholic.org or on (02) 9390 5330. For more about Go Make Disciples visit www.gomakedisciples.org.au
