OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

21 NOVEMBER 2021

CHRIST THE KING

There is a little known fact about St Mary's Cathedral Sydney. It is a war memorial church and has a statue of an unknown fallen soldier in the nave! I was surprised to find it out many years ago. But it made sense later. Not one, but two, World Wars dominated the history, especially the western in the twentieth century. Hence there have been glorification of wars, erection of war memorials in city centres, and dedication of churches to the memories human conflicts. Misguided patriotism and struggle for supremacy was at the heart of these major conflicts. Yet what we need is peace, joy, and prosperity, not destructions. In 1925, then Pope, Pius XI asserted that the most effective way of defence against the destructive forces of the age is to recognise Jesus Christ as king, and the pontiff established the Feast of Christ the King. Jesus Christ is king, though a different sort.

John's Gospel presents Jesus as the King. "Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I was born" (Jn 18:37)." To Pilate, a king meant regional ruler like Herod, appointed by the Roman Emperor. Therefore, Pilate could not acknowledge Jesus as king. What he did not know was that Jesus' kingship was not like Herod's or any other worldly monarch. The rule of Christ was non-violent. Humility, compassion, and love are the characters of Christ's rule. Jesus Christ did not load his authority over his subjects. As an ideal king he is always at our service.

Who do you think now represent Christ the King? It is not just pope and bishops that represent Christ the King. Every baptised person, through the anointing with Holy Chrism is formally set apart to represent Christ. Now look into your own life and see how you reflect Christ the King. You do not want to be in conflict with everyone like the war mongrels. What we want is a life of peace, joy, and prosperity for ourselves and others. Therefore, through your service-orientated life, witness to the world that Christ is your king, and proclaim that he is the King of all.

Child sexual abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with crimes are the police. If you, or anyone you know, have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.

ANTIPHONS & READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Rv 5:12; 1:6

How worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and divinity, and wisdom and strength and honour. To him belong glory and power for ever and ever.

First Reading

Dn 7:13-14

I gazed into the visions of the night. And I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven, one like a son of man. He came to the one of great age and was led into his presence. On him was conferred sovereignty, glory and kingship, and men of all peoples, nations and languages became his servants. His sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty which shall never pass away, nor will his empire be destroyed.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 15:5. 8-11. R.v.1

The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed; the Lord has robed himself with might, he has girded himself with power. R

The world you made firm, not to be moved; your throne has stood firm from of old. From all eternity, O Lord, you are. R

Truly your decrees are to be trusted. Holiness is fitting to your house, O Lord, until the end of time. R

Second Reading

Rv 1:5-8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the First-born from the dead, the Ruler of the kings of the earth. He loves us and has washed away our sins with his blood, and made us a line of kings, priests to serve his God and Father; to him, then, be glory and power for ever and ever. Amen. It is he who is coming on the clouds; everyone will see him, even those who pierced him, and all the races of the earth will mourn over him. This is the truth. Amen. 'I am the Alpha and the Omega' says the Lord God, who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

Gospel Acclamation

Mk 11:9, 10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Jn 18:33-37

'Are you the king of the Jews?' Pilate asked. Jesus replied, 'Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others spoken to you about me?' Pilate answered, 'Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me: what have you done?' Jesus replied, 'Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent my being surrendered to the Jews. But my kingdom is not of this kind.' 'So you are a king then?' said Pilate. 'It is you who say it' answered Jesus. 'Yes, I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this: to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.'

Communion Antiphon

Ps 28:10-11

The Lord sits as King for ever. The Lord will bless his people with peace.

REFLECTIONS ON JOHN 18:33-37

Gospel Focus – Truth

Jesus says to Pilate that he came into the world ‘to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.’ That is where today’s gospel passage finishes but as the gospel continues on, Pilate famously asks Jesus ‘What is truth?’ and the question is left dangling; unanswered. The truth Jesus has borne witness to is the truth of his whole life – the revelation of God’s love for humanity. It is for proclaiming this truth that Jesus is placed on trial and is brought before Pilate.

Historical Context – Christ the King

Unfortunately, political and military images of kingship have played a dominating role in the Church since very early in its history. The very earliest Christians, or followers of the Way, did not conform to social and political hierarchies of their day. But when Emperor Constantine declared Christianity to be the official religion of the Roman Empire the structure of the Church quickly adopted the political and social structures of the empire. At times in history the Pope has adopted a regal status and led huge armies into battle. Many of these structures persist today and we sometimes struggle to recapture Jesus’ intention when he declared himself a king.

Have you thought? The Kingdom of God

When Jesus speaks about the Kingdom of God he never gives a particularly clear picture of what he means. He usually refers to the kingdom with metaphoric language (‘the kingdom of God is like ...’) and often the kingdom is defined by what it is not. The kingdom is also a real contradiction: it is here and now and yet it is still to come; it is almost impossible for some to enter the kingdom while others are assured a place; it is within us and in our hearts and yet is a great banquet to which all are invited.

FEAST & MEMORIALS OF THE WEEK

Monday, 22 November - St Cecilia (Memorial)

Though a late fourth century church in Rome was named after her, nothing is known of her life or death. Popular legends were written about her in the late fifth century, and in the sixteenth century she was named the patron of music. Remembered in tradition as a virgin, martyred for the faith.

Her name is included in Eucharistic Prayer I (The Roman Canon).

Wednesday, 23 November - Sts Andrew Dũng-Lạc & Companions (Memorial)

Baptised at the age of fifteen, worked first as a lay missionary and then as a diocesan presbyter before being beheaded at Hanoi (Vietnam). Listed among 117 canonised martyrs who died in Vietnam between 1820 and 1862: ninety-six Vietnamese, eleven Spanish Dominicans, and ten presbyters from the Paris Foreign Mission Society. Remembered as representatives of the thousands of Christians tortured and martyred in Vietnam between the seventeenth and nineteenth centuries: bishops, presbyters, religious, and lay people, both children and adults.

NEWS

Fr Danny Meagher, New Auxiliary Bishop of Sydney

On Thursday night, 18 Nov. Fr Danny Meagher was announced to be the newest auxiliary bishop of Sydney. Danny was the former Rector of the Good Shepherd Seminary. He will be consecrated on 8 December at St Mary’s Cathedral. The other auxiliary bishops of Sydney are Richard Umbers, and Terrence Brady.

We congratulate bishop elect Danny. Catholic Weekly carries an article on the bishop elect.

Bishop Bill Wright of Maitland Newcastle Died

Bishop William (Bill) Wright died on Saturday 13 November, in Maitland Hospital having succumbed to lung cancer at the age of 69. He was Sydney priest before his ordination as the eighth bishop of Maitland-Newcastle on 15 June 2011. His funeral at 10.30 am on Wednesday 24 November will be livestreamed. Link can be obtained from Newcastle Diocesan website.

Our Parish School, SJW Primary is featured in Sydney Morning Herald

As part of the official launch of the Amadeus Music program by Sydney Catholic Schools you can find an article featuring our wonderful school and students in Sydney Morning Herald on Thursday 18 November. Principal Gai Melville said, “It has been a privilege for our school to be involved in the pilot program of what will be the most comprehensive and ambitious investment in quality music education ever undertaken in Sydney’s schools. I am confident that this opportunity will lead many of our students to discover a lifelong love of music.”

Congratulations to SJW Primary School!

Candle Light Mass for the Faithful Departed

November is a month to remember the faithful departed, especially, our dear ones who have gone for their eternal reward. At the end of this month, this coming Friday, 26 November there will be a candlelight Mass at 8PM for all the deceased people parishioners would like to pray for. The mass will be livestreamed.

During the month you are welcome to present names with November intentions. All names of November Masses will be listed and prayed for at the Candlelight Mass.

Tea light candles are now available in the Church Store for a gold coin donation each.

CWF Parish Appeal

The Charitable Works Fund (CWF) Appeal will be happening this weekend and we need your help!

Your donations will help those most struggling this winter – single mothers facing homelessness, those struggling with mental health and our Aboriginal communities. You will also be building a culture of support and encouragement for our hospital and university chaplaincies, and our future priests at the Good Shepherd Seminary. Special envelopes are available at the parish. Alternatively, you can learn more and donate securely at www.ourfaithourworks.org/cwf. Donations of $2 or more are tax deductible.

Our quota for the August & November appeals which have been combined is $13,580. Thanks to all who have generously donated!

ADVENT STARTS NEXT SUNDAY

Advent, four Sundays and weekdays leading up to the celebration of Christmas, starts next weekend, 28 November. The Advent season is a time of preparation for our hearts and minds for the anniversary of the Lord's birth on Christmas. In our Church, marking the Advent season, we put up an Advent Wreath and light candles each week.

The wreath and candles are full of symbolism tied to Christmas. The wreath itself, which is made of greens, signifies continuous life. The circle of the wreath, which has no beginning or end, symbolizes the eternity of God and the unending life we find in Christ.

The candles have their own special significance. The four candles represent the four weeks of Advent, and one candle is lit each weekend. Three of the candles are purple, the liturgical colour, that signifies a time of prayer, penance, and sacrifice.

The first candle, which is purple, symbolizes hope. It is sometimes called the "Prophecy Candle" in remembrance of the prophets, especially Isaiah, who foretold the birth of Christ. It represents the expectation felt in anticipation of the coming Messiah.

The second candle, also purple, represents faith. It is called the "Bethlehem Candle" as a reminder of Mary and Joseph's journey to Bethlehem.

The third candle is pink and symbolise joy. It is called the "Shepard's Candle," and is pink because rose is a liturgical colour for joy. The third Sunday of Advent reminds us of the joy that the faithful have reached the midpoint of Advent.

The fourth candle marks the final week of prayer and penance as we wait for the birth of our Saviour. This final candle, the "Angel's Candle," symbolizing the song of the angels: "Peace on Earth to the people of good will." The white candle is placed in the middle of the wreath and lit on Christmas Eve. This candle is called the "Christ Candle" and represents the life of Christ. The colour white is for purity—because Christ is our sinless, pure Saviour.

Thy kingdom come

From a discourse of Origen on prayer

The coming of the kingdom of God, says our Lord and Saviour, does not admit of observation, and there will be no-one to say "Look here! Look there!" For the kingdom of God is within us and in our hearts. And so it is beyond doubt that whoever prays for the coming of the kingdom of God within himself is praying rightly, praying for the kingdom to dawn in him, bear fruit and reach perfection. For God reigns in every saint, and every saint obeys God's spiritual laws — God, who dwells in him just as he dwells in any well-ordered city. The Father is present in him and in his soul Christ reigns alongside the Father, as it is said: We will come to him and make our dwelling with him.

Therefore, as we continue to move forward without ceasing, the kingdom of God within us will reach its perfection in us at that moment when the saying in the Apostle is fulfilled, that Christ, his enemies all made subject to him, shall deliver the kingdom to God the Father that God may be all in all.

For this reason let us pray without ceasing, our souls filled by a desire made divine by the Word himself. Let us pray to our Father in heaven: hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come.

There is something important that we need to understand about the kingdom of God: just as righteousness has no partnership with lawlessness, just as light has nothing in common with darkness and Christ has no agreement with Belial, so the kingdom of God and a kingdom of sin cannot co-exist.

So if we want God to reign within us, on no account may sin rule in our mortal body but let us mortify our earthly bodies and let us be made fruitful by the Spirit. Then we will be a spiritual garden of Eden for God to walk in. God will rule in us with Christ who will be seated in us on the right hand of God — God, the spiritual power that we pray to receive — until he makes his enemies (who are within us) into his footstool and pours out on us all authority, all power, all strength.

This can happen to any one of us and death, the last enemy may be destroyed, so that in us Christ says Death, where is your sting? Death, where is your victory? So let our corruptibility be clothed today with holiness and incorruption. With Death dead, let our mortality be cloaked in the Father's immortality. With God ruling in us, let us be immersed in the blessings of regeneration and resurrection.
