In-Between-Time, God-Moment Time

The thrill of watching a football match is the anxious wait to see who kicks goals. From the start of the game till the finish it is a waiting till there are winners and losers. Anyone who enjoys sports would admit that the time between the start of the game and the finish is the best part. Today, the Church invites you to buy a ticket to an “in-between-time”.

For a Christian, the life game started at the Christening. It is a moment of God coming into your life. Then the thrill of Christian living starts. The winners and losers of this game will be decided at the end. The goal of the ‘life-game’ is to let God break into our human life. Unlike those who buy tickets for the football matches, in the life game, we are both spectators and players. In the life game the ball is always in our court. Selfishness, lures of the secular world, ambition for success, jealousy and such other obstacles are to be overcome in the Christian game of life. And even in the toughest and the darkest times of our life, we do not want to take our eyes off the ball. Our goal post is in front of us and we want to steadily progress towards it. Setbacks like financial difficulties, let down by friends, failures and ill health are not going to stop us from letting God break into our lives, because our goal is to let God break into our human lives. Having more incidents of God breaking in make our Christian life a greater thrill. There is no victory until the end of the game of life. We are in “in-between-time” - between the baptismal birth and the final call to God’s house.

Today we start the season of advent and it reminds us that we are in the “in-between-time”. After four weeks of meditation on God’s coming into our lives, on Christmas Day we shall celebrate the greatness of God becoming man.

The Gospel today mentions people working in fields, women working together at grinding stones, and the day-to-day life before the big flood in Noah’s time. Similarly, we too live normal lives. From the outset nobody can say who are the final winners and losers in life. It is a matter between you and God. It depends on how much you have allowed God to enter into your life. Let this Advent time, the “in-between-time”, be a time of counting God moments in our lives.

ANTIPHONS & READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Rv 5:12; 1:6

To you, I lift up my soul, O my God. In you, I have trusted; let me not be put to shame. Nor let my enemies exult over me; and let none who hope in you be put to shame.

First Reading

Is 2:1-5

The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, concerning Judah and Jerusalem. In the days to come the mountain of the Temple of the Lord shall tower above the mountains and be lifted higher than the hills.

All the nations will stream to it, peoples without number will come to it; and they will say: 'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the Temple of the God of Jacob that he may teach us his ways so that we may walk in his paths; since the Law will go out from Zion, and the oracle of the Lord from Jerusalem.' He will wield authority over the nations and adjudicate between many peoples; these will hammer their swords into ploughshares, their spears into sickles. Nation will not lift sword against nation, there will be no more training for war. O House of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 121:1-2. 4-5. 6-9. R. see v.1

Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

I rejoiced when I heard them say: 'Let us go to God's house.' And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem. R

It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord. For Israel's law it is, there to praise the Lord's name. There were set the thrones of judgement of the house of David. R

For the peace of Jerusalem pray: 'Peace be to your homes! May peace reign in your walls, in your palaces, peace!' R

For love of my brethren and friends I say: 'Peace upon you!' For love of the house of the Lord I will ask for your good. R

Second Reading

Rom 13:11-14

You know 'the time' has come: you must wake up now: our salvation is even nearer than it was when we were converted. The night is almost over, it will be daylight soon – let us give up all the things we prefer to do under the cover of the dark; let us arm ourselves and appear in the light. Let us live decently as people do in the daytime: no drunken orgies, no promiscuity or licentiousness, and no wrangling or jealousy. Let your armour be the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

Ps 84:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mt 24:37-44

Jesus said to his disciples: 'As it was in Noah's day, so will it be when the Son of Man comes. For in those days before the Flood people were eating, drinking, taking wives, taking husbands, right up to the day Noah went into the ark, and they suspected nothing till the Flood came and swept all away. It will be like this when the Son of Man comes. Then of two men in the fields one is taken, one left; of two women at the millstone grinding, one is taken, one left.

'So stay awake, because you do not know the day when your master is coming. You may be quite sure of this that if the householder had known at what time of the night the burglar would come, he would have stayed awake and would not have allowed anyone to break through the wall of his house. Therefore, you too must stand ready because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.'

Communion Antiphon

Ps 84:13

The Lord will bestow his bounty, and our earth shall yield its increase.

Next week's Readings:

1st Reading: Is 11:1-10

2nd Reading: Rom 15:4-9

Gospel: Mt 3:1-12

REFLECTIONS ON MATTHEW 24:37-44

Gospel Focus – Get Ready!

Jesus draws a parallel between the people in Noah's time and the people of his own time. What it reflects is a complacency that periodically overtook the Jewish people. When the people bound themselves to God in covenant their lives gradually became better. Inevitably, their lives improved to such a state that they forgot God was responsible for their blessings. They ignored their relationship with God and became complacent about their good fortune. Ultimately, their comfort was brought to an end and they recognised once again their need for God. Jesus calls the people to get ready because the pattern is repeating itself.

Scriptural context – Burglars in the night

The teachings and sayings of Jesus reveal him to be a clever public speaker and story teller. His use of imagery and language captivated the imagination of his audience. However, we have tended to endow his every word with awesome significance and layers of meaning. Today's reading is an example where Jesus used a confronting image simply to gain his audience's attention. He does not intend to suggest that God sneaks up on us like a burglar and is seeking to catch us out. The image conveys the need to prepare for what might happen unexpectedly.

Historical Context – The Advent Wreath

One of the major symbols of the Advent season is the wreath. The encircling wreath is symbolic of God without beginning or end and the green foliage represents our hope in God. There are usually five candles in the wreath, a central white candle representing the light of Christ that came into the world and then four outside candles that are usually purple and rose coloured. The first candle is generally symbolic of Hope and Expectation. The third candle – the rose or pink candle – celebrates the Joy that is anticipated in the coming of Christ. The progressive lighting of the candles marks the journey towards the Nativity.

FEASTS & MEMORIALS OF THE WEEK

Wednesday, 30 November - St Andrew, Apostle (Feast)

Born at Bethsaida (Galilee). A fisherman and perhaps a disciple of John the Baptist (24 June). Introduced his brother, Simon Peter (29 June), to Jesus and became one of the first to follow Christ. Mentioned a number of times in the gospels, for example, in introducing some Gentiles to Jesus (John 12:20ff.). Widely venerated since ancient times and remembered as one of the twelve who bore witness to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

Candlelight Mass 8.00pm.

Saturday, 3 December - St Francis Xavier (Memorial)

Born in 1506 in Navarre (Spain). Died on this day in 1552 off the coast of China. Met Saint Ignatius of Loyola (31 July) while studying in Paris, became one of the first Jesuits, and went to Goa (India) as a missionary. Travelled extensively through southeast Asia to Japan, winning many converts and leaving behind organised Christian communities. Remembered for the witness of his poverty and for his tireless efforts as a missionary.

Mass of the Feast at 8.00am.

NEWS

Candlelight Mass

The Candle light Mass will be at 8PM on Wednesday, 30 November.

You may purchase an electronic tealight candle with a special paper bag from the church store as a set for only $3.

You may then write the names of your dearly departed loved ones and place the bags on the steps in front of the altar for the candlelight mass.

A Christmas without joy is no Christmas at all. Yet that's what too many people are facing this December.

A Christmas without family, after fleeing from domestic violence. A Christmas without comfort and peace of mind, after bills have mounted up. Or a Christmas without a roof over your head, after losing your home.

This advent, the Berala conference of St Vincent de Paul will be collecting donations for our local families. We know that many of you like to reach out to others during Advent. This year we are asking for donations of new toys, non perishable food, Christmas table decorations, new clothes etc. We would also like to have vouchers for kids to use to buy school supplies for 2023. If you would like to help out with this we are accepting gift cards from Woolworths, Coles, Kmart, Officeworks etc.

As usual monetary donations are more than welcome and are tax deductible. Donations can be made to the school or Church before December 17.

Thank you for your ongoing support.

Advent

Along with the Advent Season, Christmas time is rich in traditions which, despite modern commercial exploitation, still stir our hearts and imagination. The Christmas tree, the manger scene, the music and carols, the lights shining in the darkness joyfully proclaim the birth of Jesus Christ and call us to come and adore him.

Christmas and Advent can be a spiritual feast for those who live these seasons spiritually.

Let the Child and Joseph and Mary teach us the dignity and importance of children and families.

In a parish like ours, with such a diverse demography, the Christmas season's rich traditions come from peoples throughout the world. Let them remind us of the unity of all people as children of God.

Advent Wreath

The Symbols

The Circle of the Wreath: God Himself, His eternity and His endless mercy, without neither beginning nor end.

The Green of the Wreath: Our hope of newness, renewal and eternal life.

The Candles: The Light of God that came into the world through Christ to bring newness, life and hope.

Four Candles: The four weeks of Advent, representing the four centuries between the time of the Prophet Malachi and the birth of Christ.

Three Coloured (purple or blue) Candles: A period of waiting, expectation and preparation.

The First Candle: A time of expectation and hope.

The Second Candle: The peace that is to come.

The Pink (or Rose) Candle for the Third Week: It symbolizes joy for the promise is almost fulfilled.

The Fourth Candle: The love of God for mankind.

School Announcements

Sydney Catholic Schools recently announced that Miss Amanda Gahan, currently Assistant Principal and Acting Principal at St Peter Chanel School will conclude her term at the end of 2022. Miss Gahan will take up a new role as Principal of St Joan of Arc Primary School Haberfield, commencing at the start of the 2023 school year. We thank her for her tireless engagement productively promoting the school and advancing the school in the Church's mission. We wish her best in her new appointment.

Gai Melville, Principal of St Joseph the Worker Primary is taking 2023 off, and the school needs an acting principal for that term. Process towards it is underway and there will be an announcement before the end of the week.

The twofold coming of Christ

St Cyril of Jerusalem

We do not preach only one coming of Christ, but a second as well, much more glorious than the first. The first coming was marked by patience; the second will bring the crown of a divine kingdom.

In general, whatever relates to our Lord Jesus Christ has two aspects. There is a birth from God before the ages, and a birth from a virgin at the fullness of time. There is a hidden coming, like that of rain on fleece, and a coming before all eyes, still in the future.

At the first coming he was wrapped in swaddling clothes in a manger. At his second coming he will be clothed in light as in a garment. In the first coming he endured the cross, despising the shame; in the second coming he will be in glory, escorted by an army of angels.

We look then beyond the first coming and await the second. At the first coming we said: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. At the second we shall say it again; we shall go out with the angels to meet the Lord and cry out in adoration: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

The Saviour will not come to be judged again, but to judge those by whom he was judged. At his own judgement he was silent; then he will address those who committed the outrages against him when they crucified him and will remind them: You did these things, and I was silent.

His first coming was to fulfil his plan of love, to teach men by gentle persuasion. This time, whether men like it or not, they will be subjects of his kingdom by necessity.

The prophet Malachi speaks of the two comings. And the Lord whom you seek will come suddenly to his temple: that is one coming.

Again he says of another coming: Look, the Lord almighty will come, and who will endure the day of his entry, or who will stand in his sight? Because he comes like a refiner's fire, a fuller's herb, and he will sit refining and cleansing.

These two comings are also referred to by Paul in writing to Titus: The grace of God the Saviour has appeared to all men, instructing us to put aside impiety and worldly desires and live temperately, uprightly, and religiously in this present age, waiting for the joyful hope, the appearance of the glory of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Notice how he speaks of a first coming for which he gives thanks, and a second, the one we still await.

That is why the faith we profess has been handed on to you in these words: He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

Our Lord Jesus Christ will therefore come from heaven. He will come at the end of the world, in glory, at the last day. For there will be an end to this world, and the created world will be made new.

This week we welcome into the Catholic faith

Reigan Mortillero, Faustina Loloa & Caylee Pangilinan

May they always know the love of God and feel His guiding hand throughout their lives.

Persistence and love.

Perseverance: Catechist Taoto Langi brings her love of God and children into the craft she prepares for public schools. In spite of injuring her fingers, she persisted with cutting out and decorating 50 Christmas trees. Our students will write their names on the trees with the words "Jesus loves me". Thank you Taoto.

'A time to celebrate our Catechists'

Catechist Sunday is being celebrated this weekend in our parishes to acknowledge our Catechists' contribution in the mission of the Church to bring Christ to our state school children.

Recruitment for new teachers and helpers is an important call being made to parishioners during our three weekend masses. We are all called to discipleship so please consider whether God is calling you to be a Catechist.

A big thank you to all our Catechists for their wonderful work this year including Daniel, Dunia, Susan and Annuncia. Thank you Mona for coming back to support our Catechists this week. Farewell Kristen, Sr Maria and Tam. We thank Sr Maria for returning to prepare guardian angel prayer cards (pictured on opposite page) for our students and Taoto, Rosanna and Josie for their craft support.

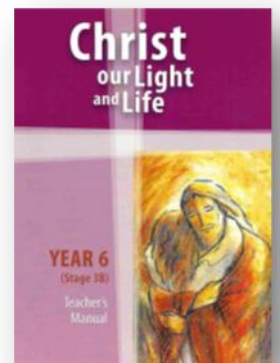

Please take the time to speak to our Catechists at the front of the Church and consider whether God is calling you to this mission. Take a prayer card away with you and pray for your Catechists.

~Brenda Wendt-Hussein, Catechist Coordinator

Train to be a Catechist

Consider volunteering an hour a week to take God's love to the children. We need teachers and helpers at Regents Park Public, Berala Public and Auburn West.

Training is provided by the CCD (Confraternity of Christian Doctrine). Contact Anita Lee, CCD Coordinator: 02 9307 8330.

Be a missionary in the classroom

You may be the only 'God presence' in a student's life

It is not easy to be a Catechist but it's a privilege and a blessing. If just one child listens, you make a difference in one life. You get training and support to be a Catechist and you can be a helper first. This is what we do as Baptised Catholics. This is your Baptismal vocation; we are supposed to share the Good News and this is an opportunity to be a real missionary in the classroom in your own neighbourhood.

You do not need to wait for retirement to be a Catechist. You can help in the classroom during lunchtime for half an hour. Many parents work from home now so please consider the option of helping in the classroom during your lunch break.

University students can help out at the schools as part of their community service. The Catechist experience will also enhance their employment opportunities.

You may be the only 'God presence' in our students' life journey. Just show up and you will be an example of Jesus. You bring Him into the classroom.

How wonderful it is to share your faith with the children in these challenging times. This is a real invitation to teach them that out of faith comes life, hope and joy.

Teach our children how to pray

Commitment: Sr Maria came out of retirement to make Christmas gifts for our students. She made 50 laminated prayer cards. Thank you Sr Maria!

Fiji evangelist our guest speaker

Visiting evangelist and father of two young sons, Rene Munch (pictured above) was guest speaker at our Catechist meeting recently. He spoke of his love for the Blessed Eucharist and discussed his work at Parish Retreats in Fiji.

Thank you Rene for your inspiring talk. And a big thank you to your sons Auggie and Henri for praying with us and being so patient at the meeting.
